Plans for the immediate construction of the first unit of the new college of Puget Sound on the 60-acre campus at North 15th and Lawrence streets were announced yesterday by Dr. E. H. Todd, president of the college.

As an expenditure of $300,000 for this first unit was voted at a meeting of the trustees of the college and architects have been reluctant to draw up the plans for the first buildings as well as for the entire building program of the campus when ultimately completed.

Construction on the first unit, consisting probably of two buildings, will be started as soon as the plans are completed.

The first unit will consist of an administration building and a science hall. These two buildings are only a small part of the complete project, which will include several large buildings with dormitories for both men and women, large athletic field and gymnasium.

"Near" come to C. P. S. from Alhambra College, where for three years he has been Director of Athletics. His record there was the most impressive, and there are many reasons why he should be brought to C. P. S. The college is in the hands of Capt. Dick Wasson, who knows how to conduct his athletics at all times.

Speaking of his record, he says, "We've been carrying on, in our sports, football, basket and track, the same system as we've been doing before. The Loggers have created much interest among the fair co-eds, who deprecate the team. McArthur and Emil Lindseth.

ANOTHER UNIVERSITY USES RADIO

The University of Denver has joined the rapidly growing number of colleges and universities which are using the radio as an advertising medium. Every Wednesday evening, Station KAFM, the Western Radio Corporation of Denver, broadcasts news of the University.

The first program was given by the student Glee Club and consisted of music and selections from the orchestra, interpreted with various items of timely interest concerning the institution. On another evening, Chancellor Helen R. Haines made the future plans of the University.

Radio fans throughout the Middle West have signed their approval of the plan and are sending in their complimentary letters by the hundred.

Puget Sound Basket Heavers Make Enviable Record

The College of Puget Sound recently completed the most successful basketball season in the history of the college. The team got off to a poor start on account of financial and material handicaps, but before the schedule was half over the quietist had hit its stride and continued to improve as the season progressed until the final whistle blew in the last game, which was won from the fast-going and well coached Tacoma Elks five.

When Coach McNeal issued his first call for turnouts the array of material that responded to the summons was indeed discouraging. Newell Stone was the only letterman out; and the rest, with the exception of Wilbur Daniels, Bruce Kinman, and Melvin Okene, had never played a college game. Selton did the turnouts exceed ten players, and with lack of experienced men and no support or encouragement outside the immediate campus sport circle, it can readily be seen the big task the coach had in molding a real team.

In all, ten games were played and of these but two were lost. These two losses were sustained at the start of the season; and in each instance the Loggers had no difficulty in winning the return game. The most impressive score registered was against the 18th Field Artillery Camp Lewis, the court being 33 to 15, and the closest shave happened to be with the same team, the figures being 33 to 34. Lack of finances made it impossible for the team to make a trip or even guarantee a game with a normal college or university on the home floor. Manager Harold Fretz can justly be commended on the alternative schedule that was finally run off.

PUFG SOUND

GIRLS' QUARTET IS UNDEFEATED

FIVE WINS OUT OF FIVE GAMES PLAYED IS RECORD OF FAIR ROOSTERS

Athletics at the college of Puget Sound are not altogether confined to the male students. For instance, there is the girls' basketball team that has even a better comparative standing than the official college five. The girls' crown was won and was won five games, finishing the season without a defeat. It assumed a tie with two games out of the contest to their opponents' one. It automatically excluded the title of girls' basketball championship of Tacoma and vicinity.

The little games that were held at the start of the season uncovered a good array of fine team material that was finally utilized in the girls' varsity squad, with the careful coaching of Mentor McNall. This year's team is probably the strongest that has ever represented the college as its showing indicates. The record this 1923 season is as follows:

C. P. S. 11
Pike High School 8
Pike High School 8
Pacific Lutheran College 9
First Baptist 1

We are greatly worried about Katherine Osterly. She is getting too unstable. One week she flies in the heaves like the grass skirts of a hula-hula, next week she sits up in a bed that gives the impression of human intelligence. Here's trouble. Is it the fellow she go with, or just temperamental change?

The seniors are having their annual scrap about graduation announcements. Helen King wants them size 3% by 3% for $5. Phoebe Nicholson thinks 3% by 3% would be better. Douglas Rowem, president of the class, wants old English style of engraving. Who is this Douglas? Being a sophomore, Bull Dog Editor doesn't care how the seniors decorate their announcements. But, when are they going to be their annual cut? We advise the school hunting up said cut this year.

In a serious vein Bull Dog would like to propose some action be taken on the condition of the tennis court. A little well directed work by some of our muscular friends would be well repaid. For advice see Dr. Harvey, P.—B. D.

At that, Bull Dog does not believe spring is here until we see Dr. Harvey's suspenders floating around the tennis court.
