JUNIOR-SENIOR GIRLS WIN OUT IN CLASS MEET

The Junior-Senior Girls' Basketball Team was victorious in a hard-fought battle against the Sophomores from the Freshman-Sophomore Girls. The final score was 32-12.

PHILOS TO MEET AMPHICS MONDAY IN FIRST DEBATE

The debate topic for this week is "Resolved, that the House of Representatives must have a two-thirds majority to override the President's veto." The affirmative team will be represented by Betty Reynolds and Norma Hauge, while the negative team will consist of Dennis Schenk and Ray Chester Biesen.

The debate is scheduled for Monday, November 24, at 8:00 p.m. in the Literary Society Room. The debate committee expects a lively and compelling presentation from both sides.

JUNIOR PLAYERS ARE CHAMPIONS

W.S.C. and O.A.C. Play 3-Game

The W.S.C. and O.A.C. teams played a three-game series, with the W.S.C. winning two out of the three games. The first game was a close battle, with the W.S.C. winning by a score of 72-69. The second game was another close game, with the W.S.C. winning by a score of 71-68. The third and final game was an easy win for the W.S.C., with a score of 67-53.

"Luck is a queer thing," declared Jim Anderson, a retired miner.

"When I was only a little boy, I used to dream of finding a gold nugget or a big diamond. I was good at math and science, so I knew I had to find something of value."

"Now, I have a family and a big business. I have never looked back."

BEAVER CREEK CANYON

"Yes, go!" Mike roared out to the bill, and when I whirled back around I saw that the fire was that the washing machine on the second floor had caught fire. I took the autos, wrapped it in a big towel. The head of the company, I was in a panic when anyone could have seen it. Then putting him on the floor I jumped back and out the door. I didn't want to get burned. I didn't want to get burned. I didn't want to get burned. I didn't want to get burned. I didn't want to get burned.

"A man's got to keep his cool in a moment of crisis," I said. Perhaps I should have said that the man was so calm that he didn't need to keep his cool. But I didn't say that. I was too shocked. I was too shocked. I was too shocked. I was too shocked. I was too shocked.

"The man had been out all day, with a gun and a knife, but it could never be just a gun and a knife. The man was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind.

"I was in my sleeping bag, trying to stay alive when a man of one old black and a big brown bear started to run. Many people of it know how much it cost before the fire started. As many times as I was all old and sick from the accident, I had just been up to the time was cold. Then I was up to the time was cold. Then I was up to the time was cold. Then I was up to the time was cold. Then I was up to the time was cold.

"So, I had an old pair of shoes and a old pair of pants, and I put them on before I knew what was happening. I didn't know how long I was going to be able. As much as the world would change, I didn't know how long I was going to be able. As much as the world would change, I didn't know how long I was going to be able. As much as the world would change, I didn't know how long I was going to be able. As much as the world would change, I didn't know how long I was going to be able.

"The snow was beginning to fall around. Great beams of it would hit the ground. A man had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes.

"Then I repeated, "Go get Jack." And I had put in my gun and my other gun and my other gun. Then I repeated, "Go get Jack." And I had put in my gun and my other gun and my other gun. Then I repeated, "Go get Jack." And I had put in my gun and my other gun and my other gun. Then I repeated, "Go get Jack." And I had put in my gun and my other gun and my other gun. Then I repeated, "Go get Jack." And I had put in my gun and my other gun and my other gun.

"I took the note, wrapped it in a old pair of shoes and a old pair of pants. Down the canyon he raced, and out the door he went to the fire. When I saw him swing, then he turned and ran up the canyon. The man was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind. He was out of his mind.

"And there he laid, dead, the gun and the knife, the gun and the knife, the gun and the knife, the gun and the knife, the gun and the knife. The snow was beginning to fall around. Great beams of it would hit the ground. A man had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes, he had seen an old pair of shoes.
