Next Week Devoted to Life Service Meetings

Beginning Dec. 19, and lasting the entire week, a series of special service meetings will be held, and in the evening between 8:30 and 9, the faculty and students will be given special help in the manner of life service to others.

Service Men and Women

In former years special service meetings were usually held by a Life Service League, but the regular program of Beta Sigma pi was brought to the campus under the leadership of Prof. Eunice B. Duncan. The girls of this organization are making a good start, and it is hoped that this meeting will be of value.

In order to make men and women better students, the Student Secretary Committee, under the leadership of the Student Assembly, has decided to hold a series of meetings during the week of Dec. 19.

PLANS FOR DEBATE

Fifteen Hundred Season Tickets Must Be Sold

The football season has been a success. Plans for an equally successful basketball season have been made. Now we must have more attendance.

The faculty has approved the program by the University of Southern California before the season even began. We are waiting now for a final reply from the University of Southern California before they can be returned to the faculty, and we will have this year, three big games. One will be played on the West Coast and the other on the East.

These tickets were promised to the debate class with the result that they were all sold, and they will leave for the East.

The faculty has written to several prominent newspapers, and they will have only a few people, and we hope that some connections will be made with the schools.

The President of the University of Southern California has accepted the offer, and that the people of Ta-

Miss Ellen Brown, world peace editor, is busy preparing the final issue of the Student Secretary, which will be published next week.

Basketball Season Started With a Bang

A Pep Rally Victorious Season Anticipated

Basketball is going strong among the men in the gym. Coach Bob Logan, who is the head coach, is doing a good job of coaching. The team is up to date with the latest style in basketball, and is ready for the season.

A group of students attended the Washington State University basketball game and enjoyed themselves. They were very pleased with the game, and hope to attend more games in the future.

The Student Secretary Committee has decided to hold a series of meetings during the week of Dec. 19, in order to further the interest in Life Service among the students.

The membership of the advisory board and the executive board are meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at the Cornish School at 9 a.m. The meeting will be open to all members of the board, and all interested students are invited to attend.

Amphics Defeat Philos 2-1 in Debate

Mrs. Hovious, the newspaper editor, is very pleased with the work of the amphic debating team, and hopes that they will continue their good work.

The Sigma Mu Chi fraternity have been doing well in the debates, and are making good progress.

of conditions which exist among the students he closed with a plea for money to further the interests of Student Relief of Europe.

Having received part of his education at the University of Washington, Mr. Boyden was much pleased with the reading.

The students were very interested in the subject of the point system and did not hesitate to express their opinion in favor of its adoption. The interest was further increased by the fact that the chapel period on Wednesday, November 21st, was shifted. The point system would so distribute the burdens, that no men would be able to attend to the necessary work. The system would be more time saving.
