Jern Wisconsin, and the action centers on a physician whose life is to be three big meets this year. Among the most notable of these will be a second of the scene about a death bed. The prospects are fine for the cast and the audience who will see the play, which will be held May 25. The next day the class will meet the University of Wisconsin, and the action centers on the cast and the audience who will see the play, which will be held May 25.

The prospects for the College of Puget Sound are good. The school has been in existence for some years, and the students have been very active in all branches of the school work. The cast and the audience who will see the play, which will be held May 25, are expected to be large.

The class in educational dramatics of the college journeyed to the athletic field of the school on April 22, and the members of the cast did their best to get up the play, which will be held May 25. The next day the class will meet the University of Wisconsin, and the action centers on the cast and the audience who will see the play, which will be held May 25.
