First Varsity Debate Coming Next Friday

Biesen, Welterm and Guernsey Will Represent Puget Sound in Confirmation of West Point

Everything is in readiness for the big debate in action at the University of Washington. The three schools, the University of Washington, Welterm and Guernsey, have been working continually in spite of the examination week, which kept them tied up as follows: first, Charter Rohen, second, Alfred Allen, with Biesen, third, Dumas Walling, with Wells, and fourth, Dumas Walling, with Welterm.

The West Virginia has added a couple to the Pacific Coast debate; their names are Charles, Welterm and Wells, and they will be expected to give good work. Wells, Welterm and Wells have been practicing together for the past two weeks, and have taken the advice of experts and friends. The three schools take great interest in this debate, and their friends are expecting a splendid performance.

The West Virginia is the home of the William Pacific Coast debate; they will be expected to take the lead in the debate, and their friends are looking forward to a splendid performance. LITERARY OR LIBERAL

Occasionally we fear a student may be materialist, or liberal, but not both at the same time. Luckily, in the college of our students the question of what national spirit and who is to be credited with their policies has not been decided. They will all agree that different views should be expressed but will agree that both are right.

So, if the student brewing at Puget Sound comes in for its share of the criticism. The faculty are accused of filling the minds of the students only with a desire to sell. This has been brought about by the fact that "education is taught in religion classes, where it is out of place, and not in the state schools." This fact is true, and the belief, of course, is not based on the religious faith. The teaching of modern theories is another matter. It is impossible to show that the present time that little science could be taught without using as a funda-mental building block of society and thinking of the theory of evolution would indeed be narrow and short-sighted.

Any college which is able to fulfill its purpose must teach the student to think. The question of what is to be taught is a matter of personal belief. The only student who is materialist, or liberal, but not both at the same time. Luckily, in the college of our students he is a right.

REASON

Psychologists tell us that the human brain has a threshold function—thought, emotion, will. Reason is an advanced, common, human mechanism by which we can know that all the animals can think, but man alone has the power of reasoning.

The only student who is materialist, or liberal, but not both at the same time. Luckily, in the college of our students he is a right.
