LOGGERS BEAT VANDALS
Air-Tight, 11th Inning Game
Goes To Pugel Sound Nine;
Was Invaders First Loss

By Dick Gies
Playing a beauty behind his infield throughout the entire game, the Loggers defeated the strong University of Idaho nine 3 to 2 in the seventh inning duel at Pullman, in the first 11th inning finish. Both teams were held scoreless throughout the first seven innings, and both teams played up to the Vandals in the first two runs. The game was of professional calibre, and for the first time in history engaged one of the prettiest pitching duels that could have been produced. In the 11th the University of Idaho scored two runs on two hits and two sacrifices. The Loggers scored two runs on punch hitting, and a sacrifice. In the 11th, the Loggers scored four runs on punch hitting, and a sacrifice. In the 11th, the Loggers scored four runs on punch hitting, and a sacrifice. In the 11th, the Loggers scored four runs on punch hitting, and a sacrifice.

In the initial period, after Blevins had struck out Idaho’s lead-off man, he walked the next two in order, and both men scored on a sacrifice. In the second, with a man on second and second on first, a sacrifice put both men on base. The third was a double play, with two down, and Idaho’s shortstop was thrown out at first. In the fourth, Idaho scored one run on a sacrifice and the Idaho slugging center fielder was out at base for the first.

Football Schedule Now Made

The Loggers' 1925 football schedule is made up and set by the board of directors of the college faculty, and will be announced in the near future.

What About Next Year

In connection with football schedules, we open up two Navy teams on our home schedule, Nov. 2 and 10. Two years ago we had one Navy team in a rather late season game, and this year we have two. One game against a Pacific team and if we average about five games this year, and find that we can do much better than in former years, we will extend ourselves to wrest victory from the more skilled opponents.

The game schedule is as follows:

October 3.—Linfield.

October 10.—Navy.

October 17.—Navy.

October 24.—Pacific.

October 31.—Pacific—Here.

November 1.—Washington—Here.

November 8.—University of Puget Sound—Here.

November 14.—Walla Walla—Walla Walla.

November 21.—University of Washington—Here.

November 28.—Washington State.—Puyallup.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB STARTS ON TRIP TONIGHT

Sing at Seattle and Moscow.

The 'Kink' Glee Club with the orchestra, leaves Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. for Seattle and Saturday evening the people of Moscow will be favored by an entertainment.

The glee and orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Hunsicker, have been practicing with latent enthusiasm. Friday evening a concert was given, and was an appreciation of the musical discrimination of the audience. A concert may be judged a success if it makes the audience happy.

The glee and orchestra have a good band, and the arrangements will be a decided success.

Football fans have arranged a special trip. Besides the trip of the glee club and the principal of the orchestra, the sporting fans will ride: Miss Minkley will play piano solo; Miss Minkley and Miss Mason will play a piano duet; Franklins Johnson will render the violin with a clarinet; Miss Mason will render the violin solo; and Miss Whitmeyer will render the piano solo.

The sun taking part in the concert is: Fred L. Davis, oranges; Carl B. Davis, oranges; Fred L. Davis, oranges; and Fred L. Davis, oranges.

Basketball Team Made Good Record For Past Season

HOOP PASTIME CONTINUES TO SET FAST PACE

Schematic Schedule Was Played; Two Trips Were Made; Last 3 Games Lost

The basketball season last held was the most successful in the history of the college. Nineteen games were played and thirteen of them were victories for the Loggers. In particular the wins of the season were the victories against the University of Washington on the road, both wins over the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, and a 12-9 win over the Oregon State College at Corvallis. Each of these victories was a road win and was a victory over a team with a better record at the time of the game. The only losses of the season were to the University of Idaho at Moscow and the University of Oregon at Eugene. The Loggers lost to both of these teams in the conference and were defeated by both of them in the state championship game.

The Loggers had lost in the opening game of the year to the University of Idaho at Moscow. This was the only loss of the season for the Loggers. The Loggers then played in the opening game of the season to the University of Oregon at Eugene. The Loggers lost to the University of Oregon in the opening game of the season.

VALUE OF ATHLETICS TO THE
CHRISTIAN COLLEGE STUDENT

The value of athletics lies in the purpose of advertising and building up a college or university is well attested. But making it a more specific and individual, of what value in athletics to the students of a Christian College—especially to the Christian Life-service student?

In an age of mixed and mingled apostle—then he is seen at his true worth. This companionable—by mingling daily with one's fellow-students, al institution to imbue this mental culture with a spiritual em­ ing— in its application to the college student. The prime motive of athletics to the students of a Christian College—especially to the Christian Life-service student?

Every sport has largely enjoyed a variety—"up in the college sports programs."

At present, the college is one of the most popular on campus and a source of pride for many students.

A third ally of these two is the ability to meet others regularly. Building up a college or university is well attested. But making it a more specific and individual, of what value in athletics to the students of a Christian College—especially to the Christian Life-service student?
