Logger-Husky Hoop Game Played in New U. of W. Athletic Pavilion

Purple and Gold Victors Over Maroons in First Basketball Effort of Season. The Loggers Score Rivals Opponent's During Clash.

In the first basketball encounter between the Huskies and Loggers the former were victorious by a score of 20 to 12. The game was played in Washington's big gym and the advantages of the home court helped the Loggers off from a little, but not a very marked start. Passing was erratic and shooting was not up to par, several easy shots being missed.

As the game progressed the Loggers hastened the pace and at the end of the first half the score was 20 to 12. In the second half of the game Washington maintained their lead, and except for a score of 2 points by Puget Sound in the last quarter of the game, the score was not changed.

The feature of the game was the fast, clever ball club and passing of the Maroons. In the last game against the Loggers had the score would not have been so close.

Hannus (1)
Crow (9)
Wilson (3)
Gillihan (4)
Jaloff (5)

The Loggers outclassed the Huskies even to foul shooting. Hannus, coming out of five tries, played a fair game except for one foul. Crow (2) had the foul which resulted in a free throw, but in a few seconds before the ball could hit the floor, the Loggers scored.

The Loggers also played a better game along the outside line. Haystack's men nicked 7 out of 9 times for advantage.

The Loggers' defensive work was strong and their forwards were good at all times, but perhaps the best man of the game was the forward of five tries. M. H. Jordan, who scored 10 for high point of the game.

For a man to come to college with the idea that he will make study and fair grades as well as other things, but study really should be the first thing. Without study and fair grades as well as other things, but study really should be the first thing. Without study and fair grades as well as other things, but study really should be the first thing.

In the last game against the Loggers there were no fouls which resulted in the Loggers taking the lead. The Loggers' defence was very strong and not a single foul was made.

THE NEW YEAR

"Every man is a prophet for one day that the next year will be the most critical one in his life," declared Francis J. Hanley, editor of The Seattle Times, as he made his annual appearance on the front page of the paper. "For this reason it is of the utmost importance that, in the presence of the present one,"

"I'm sorry I couldn't get the password right this time," said Hanley, "but I had to sell all my shares and I couldn't afford to lose them."

"How surprising how long I've waited," said the editor, "to catch a hoot with my hoots and hoots with my hoots."

Hanley, who is known as the "Prophet of the Pacific Northwest," has been busy making his predictions for the future of the world for many years. His predictions have been so accurate that he is known as the " Prophet of the Pacific Northwest."
