Leap Year Traditions to Be Portrayed Saturday Evening in Elks' Temple

Leap year and all of the traditions pertaining to it will be suitably observed under the patronage of the Kappa Sigma Theta sorority, winner informal, Saturday evening, January 29th, which is to be held in the ballroom of the Tacoma Elks Club. Women of the organization will take part in a "leap year" pep show which they not only furnish guests with transportation, but also entertain with a"leap year" supper dance when night falls upon the dance. Plans for decorations and programs, in black and white, will carry out the "leap year" idea. Clever inter-

Kappa Sigma Theta has a branch at the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma. The group is planning a formal supper dance, to be held at the Delta Alpha Gamma meeting, consisting of a read ing by Mrs. Beaton and a total of two songs by Mrs. Beaton and Mrs. Beaton. Following this a business meeting was held in which arrangements for the party were discussed. The final program, which was carried out by Estelle Lutz, sisters of Kappa Sigma proved a great success.

Among the programs at the regular sorority meetings was that of the Kappa Sigma Theta, which gave several piano solo, one of which was her own composition. Lillian Martin presented a report on the "Philadelphi a" of music and another was given by Dorothy Lutz. Piano selections and a group of poems were given by Helen Averill and Maria Pronitzky, respectively.

Loggers Lose Ball Tussels Over Holidays

Washington Huskies and Multnomah Athletic Club Men Defeat C. P. S.

Two basketball games were played and lost by the Loggers Volleyball players during the Christmas vacation. The first game was played when Coach Roy Sandberg took his team to Seattle and defeated Coach "Bud" Anderson's Huskies in a practice test. The team came home on the Jetred and played 86 to 26 score but they probably gained more in experience than they lost points.

Puget Sound was hampered by the lack of a man tall enough to cope with the height of Pete Antonich, elongated center on the Washington team who accounted for 17 points and continually got the tip-off.

Two individual members of the Loggers team stood out but the University team were more experienced in team play. It was the opinion of most spectators at the game that Parks Cagaron, Logger guard, was as fine a player as any on the floor that night. The second game of the holidays was run off last Monday evening with the Multnomah Athletic Club team and were defeated by 118-84. To the invaders was the individual star and high point man with 18 points. The second half, however, was closely contested. Cagaron, who also found time to score 14 points and amass second high scoring honors, was, Eddie McRae, Roy Stanton and Stan Bates also gave their best effort. The back courters: Ennis, Weick, Ollar, Bagley, German, Robbins.

Back the team to the end—even Montgomery, Black, Honeywell, Back the team to the end—rain or shine—win or lose—that's sportsmanship.

Every time he saw the curve of her skin he was left with the feeling of a man who has seen many beautiful women, but who has never seen anything like her before.

"Yes, that's right. We're looking for a new editor who can bring fresh perspective to our publication."

"And I think we've found someone who fits the bill."

"Are you sure?"

"Absolutely. He's got a great track record in the industry and I think he'll be a perfect fit for us."

"I'm excited to see him at our next meeting."

"Me too. Let's make this a success."
