FRIDAY NIGHT

Puget Sound Favored; But Invaders Have Veteran Aggregation

Coach Roy Sandberg's Puget Sound gridiron stars will officially open their 1930 North-west football season to-night at the University of Washington's Stadium, under the airy lights of the Stadium, and eight weeks from to-day their first real test of the season will be the Albany Pirates of Albany, Oregon.

Last year Puget defeated the Pirates in 11 to 7, but to-day the former has the advantage of a complete team and with practically the same team as last year it should prove formidable opponents.

In two games so far this season the teams have been playing under conditions fairly close to those of the University, the University being able to send out the best Patrol team in the Northwest.

Currently around Alex Schwartz and Norman Mowry are two back men, and chuck McMillan, who was ineligible last year. Jess Brogan, captain of the football team, who is just starting his third year, is as tough as any on the outside and is sure to be a great player.

Brothers and sisters, don't miss this expected contest.

It is with a favorable impression of life at CPS. The third R—root for it. If the team is losing, root for it louder.

Headlines: Alice Hazen thinks CPS is a grand place like to meet Bruce He trick on account she thinks those are his sentiments.

Happy Hour: The freshmen, as usual, are keeping things rolling around here. They shoveled off Shirley quite gently of grapes and made him look a little younger.

Freshmen, take all you can get. You deserve it, for it is like going to the fair with out buying a hamburger or visiting the fairway or going on the picnic per lunch basket. Freshmen, by looking around can profit from the experience of upperclassmen who have no interest in life, from September to June. Make your school life a challenge;
