CARNegie CORP. MAKES BIG GIFT TO ART SECTiON

Books and Reproductions Valued at Over $3,000

Recognizing the superior quality of work being done by the art department of the College of Puget Sound under the direction of Prof. G. Kibler, the Carnegie Corporation has granted to the local institution a reference and teaching set of fine arts materials because it will equip his department with an unrequired collection of instructional material.

The set contains theoretical and practical material, and carries examples of ancient and present-day art. It is recommended as being both classical and modern. Of special appeal is a Valentine's Postcard from Rembrandt, and The Notebooks of Leonardo da Vinci, which the Maritimes offers material for those interested in inlaywork.

The art department is now in receipt of unpacking and cataloguing. An exhibit is planned, and all interested will be arranged to open on the 23rd at the time of the next meeting of the Tacoma Art Association.

BAKER BACKS POETS' CONTEST

Poetry To Be of A Serious And Lyrical Nature

Do tiptoe words literaly drop off your pen? Do you long to be row and create? Does the world pass you by unenjoyed? If you answer "yes" to one of the above questions, the nick for you has been found.

Sponsored by Frank S. Baker, editor of the News Tribune, the annual writer's contest is being held again this year. The subject of this year's contest is "The poetry of a serious and lyrical nature."

Any student may enter and submit as many entries as he desires. The author's name should not be on the entry, but given in a sealed envelope with the title of the poem on the outside.

BRENDA Borden has been appointed as the judge for this year's contest. Miss Borden is an Editor of the Puget Sound. Miss Borden will be one of the judges of the contest. Miss Borden will consider the entries on their literary merit and give them the usual prizes.

APTITUDE TESTS

In connection with preliminary aptitude tests for prospective art teachers, Prof. Samuel Weir has released the following information:

"In accordance with recent propositions and decisions of the state board of education, and more definite plans of the college, for selection of art teachers for training courses, for all art students who expect to enter in educational endeavor in the arts, the art board of the college has been formed."

The faculty will consist of Jean Packard, of the University of Washington, Sanborn Knoll of Greely State Teachers College, Wallace W. Roddick of the University of Idaho, and Elizabeth Woodward of Reed College.

Qualifications for admission include sufficient knowledge of grammar and vocabulary to insure at least a fair speaking knowledge of English. The minimum is the equivalent of three years of high school study in the English language. The first five weeks of the course will be devoted to this study and must be taken by all sophomores and juniors who expect to enter in educational endeavor in the arts. Students are advised to register for the full three-week period.

Two Foreign Language Summer Camps To Be Held From July 25 to Sept. 2

FRENCH

A French Summer Camp, sponsored by the Foreign Languages Department of the University of British Columbia, the University of Minnesota, the College of Puget Sound, and Reed College, and the University of Washington, will be held on Orcas Island, August 15 to September 1. The camp will be in the language school, stressing the practical use of the language.

Classes for systematic languages study are planned; also discussion groups, lecture by distinguished speakers, plays, sports of all kinds, a choral society, and other activities.

GERMAN

The second annual of the first contiguous-summer-language camp on the Pacific coast held on Orcas Island has been successful. The camp will be continued this year with the inclusion of some of our regular school classes, and also beginning of the French Summer Camp. This camp’s German camp will be held on Orcas Island, July 25 to August 15. The camp will be in charge of the German Department of the College of Puget Sound, Reed College, and the University of Washington.

There will be language courses without credit and also three regular extension courses covering credit in either the College of Puget Sound or the University of Washington. Registration for the extension courses must be made before coming to the camp at either CPH or the University of Washington, and other activities will fill the time.

The faculty will be composed of Dr. George W. Borden, of the University of California; Dr. Hilda Cohn, of the University of Washington; Dr. Peter Olma, of Reed College; Prof. Samuel Weir, of the University of Washington; and Alfred Borden of Reed College.

EXAMINATIONS IN CATALOGUE

EXHIBIT OF ARTS AND LETTERS

The annual exhibit of art and letters will be held in the college art gallery, May 29 to June 1. The exhibit will consist of works of art and letters submitted by members of the college community. The exhibit will be open to the public.

NEW MANAGERS ARE APPOINTED FOR NEXT YEAR

Stout, Ridgeway, McClymont, Shireman, Doub, Begin Rights To Manage Various Activities

Appointed by the advisors of their respective departments and approved by the Central Board, the following will serve as managers of college activities for the 1939-40 year:

Succeeding Jean Dockerty as dramatic manager will be Charles Stout. Stout is now a sophomore, but has been active in the dramatic department during the last two years and has had experience to qualify him for the job.

Taking over the position of Carol Cavagnari, manager of music department, will be Robert Ridgeway, freshman. He has been active in Adelphia activities in his first year at the college.

McClymont will become women’s athletic manager succeeding Jean Hartman. Hartman has been very active in sports and WAA. She is a sophomore.

Shireman will serve as men’s foreman manager, taking over the position of the men’s foreman manager’s manager, but has been prominent in debate during his three years at CPH. Sara Louise Doub will replace Ellin芭 Hartman as women’s foreman manager. Sara was one of those making the trip to Kansas.

Yates Hanenwiek will be succeeded by Bill Barroscos as manager of the orchestra. Barroscos has been active in all Central Board activities. Central Board also approved Russell Perkins as representative of varsity athletics on the Central Board.

Knights Choose 15 New Members

Chosen for scholarship, ability to do service work, and general leadership in college activities during the past year, the new members of the Knight of the Log were announced last Monday by Chaplain. Those chosen were: Tom Ray, president of the Freshman Class; Cyril Jamison, second in command of the Sophomore Class; Bob Brothers, freshman representative of Central Board; and vice-president of next year’s Sophomore Class; George Mitchell, sophomore representative for next year, active in football; Yoshiteru Kawano, active in debate and in Central Board. His good record is: George Fitchen, active in basketball; Charles Furner, active in debate and in Central Board.

PAGING ALL CAMERA

All students interested in the position of photographer at the 1939 Tamanawas are asked to meet in room 19 at 11:35 next Monday; the new photographer will be appointed at that time.
OPEN FOR 'EM

Dear Open For'em,

Dear observer on the Hill,

For the third consecutive year, the CAPPS athletic star, Professor L. M. Heidt, has been chosen for the spring season. Heidt, alias 'The Captain,' as he is known to his friends, will be seen on the field of play, donning the traditional blue and white uniform.

The graduating class held a business meeting under the direction of the Class of 1923, which was held on May 19. The meeting was attended by the class officers and the newly elected members.

The Lambdas have been wondering why the Band Manager, Bob Sharp, independent and Joe Price, Mu Sigma Zeta, have suddenly disappeared from the scene. It is believed that they have decided to devote their energies to other activities.

The graduating class held an annual Junior-Senior outing on May 29. The event was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The Band Manager, Bob Sharp, and his associates, have been working hard to prepare for the next season. They are planning to present a variety of programs, including the popular "Fiddler on the Roof." The band will be under the direction of Professor L. M. Heidt, who is expected to lead them to new heights of musical excellence.

Music, Dramatics, Recitals Announced

Professor D. Robert Smith announces a performance of "Hamlet" by the University theater group for the afternoon of Tuesday, May 14 at 8:15 p.m. The play will be presented in the Poe Auditorium.
