Dirigible: If you've never heard Ran Wilde and his orchestra, you're in for a treat. His coming to the city for two nights, March 5 and 6. Your columnist heard Ear two nights ago at the Oakes and has been singing his praises ever since. In other words, if you've never heard him, you're in for a treat.

Despite Hitler's rule, American swing records are favorites among youngsters. Most records are brought into the common disregard for music. Last Christmas season, the 'Dipla Books' was sold under the label of "Silent Night.' What a shock for Personnel: Zum Steine, born in Cleveland, Ohio, 20 years ago........Won scholarship to U. of Ohio through musical ability. Organized own orchestra from members of student band. "Swing and Swol" seems popular today. You hear the names of those that left Ohio U. five years ago.

Oddities: The musical Messiah or "Humboldt" offers swing to Mary Warren. The Messiah is a product of the tradition, but could as well have written "we have to substitute life for death."

Whatever may have happened to traditions, their existence upon the sentimental value of its traditions sacrifices the living value of the present for the dead value of things past.

"Patriotism," said the crotch Dr. Johnson, "is the last refuge of those who have no other recourse than to turn to the Time and the grave, answer I... Whatever lays the justification of its existence upon the sentiment had not Jesus rebelled against the status quo in the Temple. History might not have developed had it not been for the illusory promise that come in to contact with it."

The same is true of any institution or society... Our nation was founded on the "Humboldt" plan... The institution that sets a glorious goal before it lives because it has risen from live coals - it is the fire of purposeful imagination... When we no longer have purpose, we are defeated and crushed...

His devotion to the King of Scotch wine for so far that Bill has purchased 61 Goodman records, one of the largest personal collections in the city. Bill's great interest is in sports and in collecting..."

TRADITION: RATHER PURPOSE...

"Trinity is the best of the four schools of the university. It is the foremost of the four, I say, in the stillness of the office..." It is furthermore the first haven of the layman... The supreme duty of a citizen toward his country is to rebel... History might not have developed had it not been for the illusory promise. Whatever happens to traditions, their existence upon the sentimental value of its traditions sacrifices the living value of the present for the dead value of things past.

Helmut Juelig came in the Trail office the other day and declared that he was through with wild living! Oh yeah! He and Paulette are now serious about fitting in with the upper crust.

This spring vacation is the season in which you get to do whatever you want. You will have a chance to show them off and look good. Another feature will be dressing in a more refined manner. For spring dressing, dresses or pants suits in lace or chiffon. There will be scarfs of roses and blue or on blue chiffon. It can be worn with sandals, short, or in long.

"Be Prepared" sounds to be Elsie Pressenier's slogan last week. She gave a heavy assemblage of about one-half hour. The affair was a popular theme of school in a park and ballads and songs in their opinion.

One of the smartest of the group is Virginia Krogh's black velvet suit. It felt with a gray square crown trinned with emerald satin feathers.

From head to feet - Wear your hair curled high, the hair parted in the middle and the curled ends are brushed away from your face. Put your feet in a pair of heels. Put on a pair of white, and blue striped jacket.

All dresses and suits will be coming in about one-half inch, she appeared at school in a park and ballads and songs in their opinion.

The proposed plan is that it will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Winthrop Hotel. Couples will dance to the music of strain.

Spanish Club members, attention please! The following members will meet in room 115 today. Potts and Joie Blackman, Dubois and Miss Vaughan, Joe Real, Harvey Coleman, Ernest Coleman, Elvidale,decline, Joe Real, advice to students. Are that group of people in the room from Monday to 5 in the Winthrop Hotel.

The position of the students in the program of China was pointed out in the Open Forum column this week. We noted that FAP Eastern Student Aid Fund is a step beyond verbal expression of sympathy and understanding, that the fund is founded not only to strength the Chinese student materially, but that it is also an expression of how we feel. This fund is also a tangible expression of how we feel.

With to our charity and desire to help the Chinese students, we are providing Japan with scrap iron, America is adding in the situation of China. And yet, the FAP Eastern Student Aid Fund and many other movements aiding Chinese reconstruction, are working for the Strength of China as a people and nation.

There are undoubtedly people who become discouraged when they note the progress of the help that has been providing for the agents of force and destruction as against the comparatively few efforts the attempts being made to enlighten, recruit, and prepare, the part of the world.

In our case discouragement leads to indifference, and indifference is but another way of saying that we are not interested.

But because there is a group in America believing that the forces of destruction do nothing but destroy, and believing the only way to change this is to start an effort to do it, attempts, such as the FAP Eastern Student Aid Fund, help to make to nourish education, good, and spiritual aid to the Chinese students, are the symptoms of ignorance and force. For many of us this is evident with our support of the cause of the Chinese student.

However, when we realize that the FAP Eastern Student Aid Fund are to the Japanese student, we see that our effort most important to the Chinese student, but that it is also an expression of how we feel. The proposed plan is that it will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Winthrop Hotel. Couples will dance to the music of strain.

Willamette Bearcats Here For Two Game Series On Friday, Saturday Nights

By Frank Walker

Willamette University's powerful Bearcats will invade the Loggers' naps for a two-game series tonight and tomorrow night. The series will start at 7.

Coach Lou Grant will send a small but fast team against the tall Willamette aggregation. Antun, Beecat center, and Sloggi are will be at their best. The Bearcats have benefited by a Northwestern conference in scoring, having made 20 points in his first five league games. One team has been able to hold the tall center to a low score, that being the Oregon State team in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Wins and College Salem high school players, are also showing fine form in games so far this season. White, Elderly, and the fine center will keep the Loggers in close ranges with the Bearcats line-up.

Although the Bearcats start

CPS Loses Ski Meet 300 to 279

CPS took another one on the chin in the week-end ski tournamenet at Columbia, 308 to 272.

Next week's contests include the Independents over the Mu Chi, the Delta over the Delta Kapps; the Delta Kapps over the Barbs (in volleyball only) and the Loggers will be talking about games, don't overlook the series with the Willamette Bearcats tented and tomorrow.

Loggers Lose Two To Albany

Willamette and Lindelf both gave the Loggers a tough time in the week end or so. . . Sickness, work and poor refereeing caused to the losses suffered by the Loggers at the hands of ten of the lads worked. One was sick from a cold. And poor officiating was the other cause that helped the newly formed Portland Institute when they got stuck in the clutterhouse.

VARISITY LETTERMEN TO REORGANIZE

A small group of varsity lettermen, who are fed up with the antics of others in their organization, voted in a meeting last Tuesday night in favor of a new and reorganized club. Those few who are showing an intense interest in their cause, are preparing several changes. A charter membership will be held, with the beginning of the next Tuesday meeting, which will be held on February 5.

Varsity Football to Play

The linemen of the 1938 football squad should be worth the change of the backfield men to a basketball team, and if passing-plays are planned, will be played a pre-game game in the CPS-Loggers game Saturday morning. The final will be held after 7 p.m. and the lettermen will give.
