Race Problem Improved Says Negro Prexy

Post Three Years Find Negro-White Sociology

"The sociological situation between the whites and negroes is more hopeful than it was during the last three years." This optimistic statement was made to a group of students in a combined Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. chapel Thursday, by Dr. J. W. Haywood, president of the Morris Normal and Industrial College, Negro Methodist institution in Morris, Tennessee. To prove the three years Dr. Haywood remarked that he has never heard a white person use "nigger" in Morris.

Haywood made another telling statement to the effect that in 1941, Tennessee, where his college is located, congressmen have been Representatives who serve the Civil War. As in his own party preference for, Haywood said, and "I don't know what it is to politics. I'm just a radical independent.

A junior college was founded 50 years ago in Morris, and has proved highly successful. Dr. Haywood said that his real situation in the Northwest was to raise funds in order to start a floor dimension project for the state he represented. He reported that 40% of the students who are from the college will graduate from Morris Normal College.

"We have the advantage that the students who are in the homes of our graduates have a background of home economics courses in order to prepare students for productive domestic work.

Dr. Haywood said, "At present the enrollment in our college is about 1,500. We have built the college to 3,500 because we believe in the educational ideal so that the individual student has the best training possible."

Dr. A. L. Frederick Elect To Council Commission

Professor Arthur L. Frederick attended the annual meeting of the Washington Council of the American Education Association held from Jan. 1 and 3 at George Frederick coauditorium in the George Frederick art school. Among the topics discussed at the conference were the renaming of released from white students and the selection of elected chairman of the activities and education commission.

Chines Consul In Fund Drive

Campaign Is For Benefit Of Far Eastern Students

Kliff Yi Sang, Chinese consul in Seattle, will give the kick-off speech in chapel Feb. 12 for the Far Eastern Student Fund drive to be sponsored again this year by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Plans for an intensive campaign starting from Feb. 12 to 18 are being made by Bell McCrae and Bell McCrae, chairman.

Set as the goal for the drive $50,000, three times the amount contributed to the fund last year by this college. According to the present rate of exchange, this amount of $155,000 for Far Eastern students, medical and for 400 students for one year, or entire support for one year and 60 students. Miss McCrae emphasized the fact that the drive is open to help students only. It will be open to Chinese and Japanese students on a percentage of their respective groups.

"Knowing, and yet not fully realizing the plight of these students, we should be able to lend a helping hand to those brave and courageous builders of a new Orient," said Miss McCrae.

Drummers Are Active

Campus Playmakers are the dramatists of the college. On their list of activities are the commencement play, several one-act plays which are presented during the fall and spring semester programs. Miss Martha Paul Jones, president, and Miss Victoria Johnston, dramaturgical manager, work to the collective effort of the various dramatic societies.

JONES HALL OF LIBERAL ARTS

NEW AWARD FOR COMMENCEMENT

Education Student to Receive Commencement Trophy

Preliminary information has been released of an educational trophy which will be given at commencement to the best student of the education department. This trophy, to be known as the Stewart Walz educational trophy, will be presented by Dr. Raymond L. Powell, head of the education department.

"To encourage the students in the field of education, the award will be given to the best student in the field of education," said Dr. Powell.

The winner of the cup will be selected on the basis of academic efficiency, a credit standing, and a survey of the student's work in the field of education.

"He must have completed at least 12 semester hours in the field of education, and be in good standing with the college," said Dr. Powell.

"In addition, he must have been a member of the education department, and have made an excellent showing in the field of education." Dr. Powell added.

According to the criteria, the education department must be the only field of study in which the student must be major in the field of education.

The winning students must be a senior or junior in the college, and have a minimum of 200 hours in the field of education.

New Requirements Set for Teaching

2 Minors, More Hours Ruled for Certification

Applicants for secondary certification who graduate Sept. 1, 1940, must have one major, and two minors, whether they are major and minors in the same subject, or major and minors in two different subjects.

According to the new requirements, a student must have 12 hours of classroom teaching, and 18 hours of student teaching. The minor subject must be a major subject in one of the two years.

In addition, students must have 120 hours in the major subject, and 180 hours in the minor subject. The total number of hours must be at least 135.

The new requirements also include an additional 10 hours of supervised teaching, and 20 hours of classroom teaching.

Another change, to be effective after Sept. 1, 1940, is that applicants for teaching certification must have all of the above courses in the field of education, and one or more hours in education.

"It is our hope that all applicants for teaching certification will have completed at least 120 hours in the field of education," said Dr. Powell.

Combat Theories of Allies, Germany Reveals Cause of Invasion Scare

In preparing the current invasion scare in Europe, several reasons are given. The first reason is overwhelming military powers involved should be known before a clear, concrete picture of the situation can be known. As a result, it is the most important to the effect that Britain is attempting to spread the war by creating new battlefronts in Northern Europe.

The British have a three-tiered strategy to pursue. First, they want to draw Russia into battle against Germany. Second, they want to create a situation where Germany must defend itself on two fronts simultaneously. Finally, they want to isolate France and Italy, leaving them vulnerable to attack. To achieve these goals, Britain has employed a variety of tactics, such as economic sanctions and propaganda campaigns.

Britain's military strategy is to create a_tensors for a two-front war. The British believe that by creating a situation where Germany is forced to defend itself on two fronts simultaneously, they can overwhelm its forces. Britain hopes to achieve this by creating a situation where Germany must defend itself on the Western Front against France and Italy, and on the Eastern Front against the Soviet Union.

Britain's economic strategy is to weaken Germany's economy through sanctions and by disrupting its trade networks. Britain believes that by doing so, it can undermine the German economy and make it more vulnerable to attack. Britain has imposed economic sanctions on Germany, including trade embargoes and restrictions on the supply of raw materials.

Britain's propaganda strategy is to undermine German public opinion and morale. Britain believes that by creating a sense of fear and anxiety in the German population, it can undermine the government's ability to resist the invasion. Britain has used a variety of propaganda tactics, such as radio broadcasts, newspapers, and leaflets to create a sense of fear and anxiety in the German population.

Season Promises To Be Successful
For Adelphian Choral Society

By Jan Richard
The Adelphian Choral Society holds promise of another successful year for the music students of the college. Under the direction of the head of the music department, Mr. John Paul Bennet, new members are being recruited to help make this one of the society's most successful years. This year, there are 16 new students enrolled, which is a good increase from last year's number of 15 students.

The new members are comprised of students from various classes, with a good mixture of boys and girls. They will be joining the choir in their first year with the society, and the founders are hopeful that they will continue to grow and develop their musical talents. The choir's repertoire includes a variety of music, from classical to contemporary pieces. The society's director, Mr. John Paul Bennet, is known for his dedication to music education and is always looking for ways to improve the choir's performance.

In addition to the new members, there are several programs during the year that will be taking place, including performances at the college and in the local community. The choir will also be participating in a few competitions, which will provide an opportunity for the students to showcase their skills and compete with other choirs. The choir's first performance will be at the college's fall concert, where they will be performing a selection of pieces from their repertoire.

The choir's success is due in part to the dedication of its members and the support of the college administration. The choir is an integral part of the college's arts program and is highly regarded by the music community. The society's director, Mr. John Paul Bennet, is known for his dedication to music education and is always looking for ways to improve the choir's performance.

Delta Kapps Win Badminton Crown

By Bill Nelson

When the last indication shot clock tick fell to the floor there was the indication that the Delta Kapps had come through another battle to win the championship by that kind straight (time of winning) of maintaining permanent possession of the ball.

The Independents came in second with the Chi Phi slate. The pitch of the year was played between the groups for the favor of the Independent slate. Asha and Jimmy came up from the basement to win. This was considered the best part of the game when the team

Winning over the internal procedure was the fact that the Independents have been taken into possession. The glee team took possession of the track football trophy and are now the independent team. The Independent team could easily play the Independent team.

Next came the volleyball and it was a set with sets and ratings with the Independent slate on top of the heap, wearing the championship for the second year. The Chi Phi slate came second and the Delta Kappas third. The Independent slate was really doing well and the Independent slate was doing well with the Independent slate and the Independent slate.
