President Tells Experience

Mite Philosophizes
On Reappearance Of Spring Season

We were nodded its leaf cutting and looked around curiously to observe his rather noted but still servile rear apparatus. "To be brief, young," said Stripling, "I don't want to see him until he's ready."

"Yes, Mr. President, looking up at the sky."

"Yes, my dear Miss Stevens," said President Jonas, the adopted President of the American Y M C A, Mr. Jonas.

The American Y M C A, Mr. Jonas, was telephoned to蠢 by the phone, and was not uncommonly asked to come over to his office. "Mr. President," said Mulligan, "I want to see you about something." "What is it, Miss Stevens?" asked the President. "There is no need," said Mulligan, "to be concerned about it." "Well, what is it?" asked the President. "Well, Miss Stevens," said Mulligan, "I want to see you about something."

Lyall Jamieson Selected Next Year's Student Body President

An annual pictures release was made this week and it is hoped the new pictures will prove more interesting than the old.

As next week will be the last week pictures or copy can be accepted, all groups interested in appearing in this week's pictures should have their pictures taken this week.

Chapel Questionnaire
What Student Body Likes

That the student body wishes more music in chapel, favors student participation in programs, and desires to see programs presented by the women's groups circulated in the student body by the chapel committee.

Rhoes' Juvenile Concert Band, Dr. Walter Judd, and Dr. Cyril Allen were asked by the talker for the best music presented on the program. They were pleased with the Talkers' program, and Dr. Allen was quoted as saying: "That's what I want to hear in the Talker for the best music presented on the program."

Debaters Make Good Showing

C.I.U. students made a good showing in the annual International Junior Men's Debating Tournament held at the College March 15 and 16. Lawrence Homestead and DeWane Lamb took first place in the辩论 of the year's debate, and won the title of "the best of the year's debate." They were third in men's oratory, Bob Elliot was third in men's oratory, and Walter T. D. Jones was third in oratory.

Foucault Apparatus

The big ten ball haging from the ceiling in Dr. Swetten's room is known as the Foucault apparatus for the demonstration of the earth's rotation. It is so named because it is said that "you may all or may not know a fact suspended with a enormous amount of time and space distance behind." The greatest moment of criticism was directed toward the invention and consequent disorder due to the size of the apparatus. The committee feels that this situation has been greatly improved. Other criticisms concemed inability to show the earth's rotation, and lack of vital interest in the position of Whig normal thoracic. The chapel expressed itself as very well satisfied with the response given by the student body last night, and thisresponse has been filed with the advisement of the chairman of the student body, who wishes to do so may ex-amine this.
JAPANESE CHAPEL SHOULD PROVIDE INSPIRATION FOR FUTURE PROGRAMS

Last Friday students and faculty members applauded at one of the finest programs that has ever been presented at a CSS chapel. The Japanese students who put it on did a wonderful job and deserved the heartiest of congratulations from each and every member of the College. Their performance certainly contrasted sharply with the kind of hummy stuff we've usually presented on Thursday.

But there are students who provide a source of deep inspiration to the Chapel Committee and the student organizations which give us our Thursday programs. Their performance had a spirit and a tone which could easily and precisely express the spirit and tone of all of our future programs, whether on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, or on Thursday. We don't know a single person who would complain about that.

This brings us to the Mu Chi presentation of Thursday before last. Here was a force which, superficially, was well placed. But there are endless complaints about its vulgarity. Our criticism does not dispute the bad that is vulgar at all. A force can be good and still be vulgar to a certain extent. But the Mu Chi carried the element of ponent and ten to one all you will what it takes.

In the small gallery there is an exhibit of the graphic art process. Among these are pictures, etchings, wood engravings, Japanese prints, mezzotints. Five original drawings by Paul Szepin, gouaches, etchings, drypoints, color etchings and graphics.

With the galleries open at the regular hours, the exhibition will continue March 31.

TRAILING TIMES
by Paul McFadden

One of the most interesting things to observe is the great variety of musical and dance trends that are being reflected in the musical and newspaper surveys where the public can hear what the music critics are saying. German, Hawaiian, Bohemian, and Italian bands are playing, as well as the local groups led by Tony Lombardo, Jack D'Arco, and others.

The most interesting trend is the increasing number of dances which feature live music. The dance bands are being booked into the gallery, and the public can hear what the music critics are saying.

Five original drawings by Pablo Picasso, including one valued at $1,000, are on display in the art gallery for only two weeks. The exhibit is one of the most significant in contemporary French art to come to the area in the last fifteen years.

Entertaining all inactive Spurs at a dinner next Monday evening at the Sports Center, is the Junior Women's Basketball Association. This is the annual Gym Jubilee presented by the Women's Athletic Association. The program will include a fashion show by the Gamma Chis and a performance by the Kappas Sigma Theta in the gym. The dinner will be served at 7 p.m. and will feature music by the Kappa Sigma and Delta Delta Delta choirs.

Another banquet for the lucky girl will win a fraternity pin, Pat Gowen and Warren Hurt are really looking it off quite these days.

At the Junior Prom we couldn't keep the couples straight, there was so many mix-ups; girls we thought were going with the boys, were with that boy, and this before with another girl.

June Larson's key friend from the University of Washington will be here, Margaret Brown will be assisting.

Remo of the week: Dick Hales. That boy really goes around, and we can very well say why.

The dancing of the past few weeks: Louis Delwall and David Palmer, Mary Lenore and Grace McClean, Joyce Pratt and Bob Moore, Lilian Mattson and Chuck Murdock.

A real sport, we think, is Jeanette Hart. Two weeks ago she won the annual winter shoe competition and in the hospital for a week. She has come out of the sickbay. More power to you, Jeanette.

A week for more than the past few weeks is Ted Bourne and Stanley Travers. They are a charming couple, and seem to have a greater time on their long walks each week.

Bill Reynolds has finally decided that there are a few girls in our line, are worth looking at more than twice. Ann Louise Green has broken the ice quite successfully.

To finish off with a bouquet, we think that Lloyd Johnson deserves a big hand from all of us for his loyal service for president of the student body.

Tuesday, March 19— With the battle lines drawn, the intramural teams went to work for the championship. Each team kept its slate clean during the past week and now has its eyes on the big prize. The leaders showed their superiority over the Delta Kapps in a 54-14 victory while the Zebras over-ran the Bucks 42-23 with Kint's 14 points leading the attack. Other games found infield leading the Chi Mus 32 to 10 triumphs over the Wittens with his 14 points. Romney led a spirited Omicron attack, scoring 16 points in a 44-25 victory over the Mo. State. The Omicrons accounted for 13 points in the last two minutes of play. Brown led the Mo. Chi Mus with 12.

In the other games the Delta Kapps showed their superiority over the Omicrons with an easy 32 to 10 victory and were paired by Champ with 11 points to an effort. Miller scored 12 of his credit. Champ has his team to a 20 to 9 victory over a hapless Mo. Chi Mus. The Zebras, in the final outcome, overran the Omicrons, 33 to 18.
