President’s Message for 1941

COLLEGES AND PREPAREDNESS

This is a subject which brings great special attention from the President and the Board of Trustees. Our schools, our colleges, and our universities are preparing for a new and different world. This year’s curriculum will focus on this theme.

Employment for college students has been a top priority this year, and the Board of Trustees has worked hard to find opportunities for our students. The Employment Service has been enhanced by a network of three advisors, each responsible for the office of the Student Body President.

The service will coordinate with the placement bureau operated by the faculty, located in the offices of the Student Body President.

Employment for college students is an important issue. We must work hard to ensure that our students are prepared for the workforce.

Students who wish to work on campus should register with the Employment Service. The service will provide job openings and work schedules.

Half Full Schedule Is Promised Debaters By College Coach

Open to freshmen as usual, a half schedule of debating activities will be offered this year. The College Debate Team will meet on Tuesday evenings. The team will consist of at least four members selected by the Debate Committee.

Many opportunities will arise for members of the College Debate Team to participate in local and regional tournaments. The team will consist of at least four members selected by the Debate Committee.

Evening Classes Will Be Offered Again This Year

Registration begins Monday evening, September 28, for the evening sessions at the College of Puget Sound. The evening sessions will be held on the campus of Christ Church, a popular location for evening classes.

Sections in basic college courses, mathematics, languages, history and government are open for registration. Those interested in evening classes should register as soon as possible.

Frosh Play Night Will Be Oct. 18

Single—doubles—trips—triple—and Fives are open with a wide choice of partners and positions available. Any team that has the potential for success will be considered.

This evening is for all students and is designed to allow participants to try out for the College Debate Team. Those interested in playing should register as soon as possible.

President’s Message for 1941

"By Dr. Lyle Schmedine, Professor of History and Political Science

The College of Puget Sound enters this year upon its 52nd season of service in the higher educational life of the Pacific Northwest. The institution as it stands today would hardly be recognized by those who entered its doors over 50 years ago, for it has reflected the changes and the events which have taken place in our country during the past half-century.

The College of Puget Sound was founded, this was a new and growing community and the earliest thing that came to mind was the need for a school of higher learning. The idea was to have a college that would provide an education for young men and women who wished to pursue an advanced course of study. This was the beginning of the college, and the first year of its existence saw the enrollment of 20 students and a faculty of five.

In the early years, the college faced many challenges, including a lack of funds and a shortage of qualified faculty. However, the college persevered, and in 1853, the first degree was conferred, a Bachelor of Arts degree. The college continued to grow, and in 1856, it was granted the status of a university, becoming the University of Puget Sound.

Over the years, the college has faced many challenges, including the Civil War, the Great Depression, and World War II. Despite these challenges, the college has remained true to its mission of providing a quality education for its students.

Today, the college is home to more than 3,000 students and offers a wide range of academic programs in fields such as business, education, and the arts. The college is committed to providing a diverse and inclusive educational environment, and it is proud to serve students from all walks of life.

We are looking forward to another year of growth and accomplishment at the College of Puget Sound, and we thank all of our students, faculty, staff, and friends for their support and commitment to our mission.

Edward J. Todd"
