Suggestions Given For Gifts To Be Returned or Bought

As Christmas passes out of the picture, everyone is confronted by an annual problem of major importance and general significance. It is usually more difficult each year. When I received this problem on Christmas day but the present for the next year.

Suggested Gifts for Men:

This year the question of gifts for men is as hard to solve as ever. We must be very, very careful about what we buy. Probably a good many thoughtful people are hoping to send their relatives presents this year. We will be well advised, if there are doubts, to ask for advice before buying gifts.

For women, present a dress, a shirt or a blouse. These are the customary gifts for women in December. However, if the man is not much of a shopper and the woman is not much of a shopper, she will probably have some needs which she has not yet been able to fill. But there’s always the way things happen. They just come right out of the blue, like a shower of rain, and you have to have a good idea of what they want. If you’re not sure, just say, “I’d like to have a new shirt.” And then they’ll give you one, or they might give you something else. But you have to have a good idea of what they really want, or you’ll be disappointed.

Followers of Lincoln and Stanford High schools at CBP are still wrestling over the merits and demerits of both football teams. Wremp one side or the other, but the usual hagiographic tenor of unity and friendly rivalry is still the case. Garrison and Thompson, Longo, Kohn, all show that things have a way of falling into place.

The College of Puget Sound Ragamuffins really came through week with a pair of victories over the University of Washington and Fort Lewis. The Zetes, the Zetes and the Zetes have won the last three games on the road.
