CHORAL GROUP RECITAL
SCORES AS SMASH HIT

Scenes of savage voodooism, filling voices echoing softly, with a solemn atmosphere filling the Grand Ballroom featuring the "Star Spangled Banner," brought spontaneous enthusiasm from the packed house that attended the Choral Recital Society program last Friday evening. This is the third annual offering of the society, a division of the college Campus Fuguesters.

At the opening of the program, a panel of the members read a selection from "The Tragedy of Macbeth," crystallizing the spirit of the Grand Ballroom, and ending with the "Star Spangled Banner." The final offering of the night was a stirring performance of the closing selection. The critics were given a murder, "The Congo," with the thundering drums denoting the action of the play. The performance was to please the audience, but still, the music was carried through a series of instrumental solos. The chorus also performed a "Shenandoah" and "The Star Spangled Banner." The encore was "The Battle Hymn," which was performed by the voice of John Hansen.

From the scenes of magic they danced in their lavor of the night.

MARCH FATED MONTH

March has frequently been a favored month in the past, one of HAM'S favorite ideas for military experience. As a terminal to some of the most important events in our history in the present, we have happened in March. March 3, 1842 — Railroads of automobiles began.
March 5, 1842 — Japanese captured Singapore, closing off China for supplies to China over Burma.
March 9, 1842 — President Harrison signed"Tariff Act of 1842," tariffs doubled.
March 12, 1842 — Serbia declared independent.
March 17, 1842 — General Douglas MacArthur was born.
March 18, 1842 — Hamilton - Columbia first meeting in the United States, formed in the Southwestern Pacific.
March 19, 1842 — Greek Independence Day.
March 28, 1842 — Pacific was first established in Washington, British: American, Europe, and the United States.
March 31, 1842 — Final sales of the United States.

Not to be forgotten is March 15, 1942, the day when some of the students were called up for military service.

Look Intelligent and Smile! Plea of Annual Photographers

By JANIE THOMPSON

"Hold it just a second...I'm not here!" That's all. This is the usual statement made by the top CPS photographers as they pose groups for the Tamanawas pictures. Everyone gets situated on a davenport or a chair, and set off to the difficult task of putting on an intelligent expression for old A and O.

If you have always managed to make this request mean the top CPS photographers are just being a little shy, you may be right. But keep an eye on some of these subjects for a moment. You will find they are all shy, or at least not very intelligent. It is just that the photographers are saying, "Hold it, just a moment. I don't feel very intelligent this morning!"

If you are one of those people who don't understand the Shy Photographers, you will find this article of some importance. You will learn how to make your picture better by putting on an intelligent expression. You will also learn how to make your picture worse by not putting on an intelligent expression.

The photographers are not trying to be rude. They are just trying to make sure that the pictures they take are as good as possible. They know that if they don't put on an intelligent expression, the pictures will be poor. They are trying to make sure that the pictures they take are as good as possible.

If you want to learn how to make your picture better, you should read this article carefully. You will find it very interesting and informative. You will learn how to make your picture better by putting on an intelligent expression. You will also learn how to make your picture worse by not putting on an intelligent expression.

Nine Hoop Awards Given to Loggers

Danielson and Lofness to Receive Second Year Scholarships; Other Awards Given to Be Greene, Though of Army and Other Schools.

Nine letters are to be awarded to members of the Logger hoop squad for this season, it was revealed yesterday afternoon by Joe Kline, director of athletics.

Along with the letters that are to be given, there will be awarded a number of additional honors.

The annual trophy, the CPS Gridder Cup, will be awarded to the man most valuable to the team. This year, however, instead of awarding the trophy to the single individual, it will be given to three men to honor them. The other six athletes who have been named letters and who have left all endeavor to honor their team are to receive separate graduation awards.

The first three players are to be awarded the trophy by Mr. Sexton, Mr. Hook, and Mr. Hansen respectively. The last three of the awards will be given to Mr. Still, Mr. Pate, and Mr. Tippett, respectively.

Women of your school are invited to make applications for these, and applications will be made by the отзнают to those men receiving awards.

CPS Gridder Wins Coveted Werbisky Cup

When you got the award, the first thing you read was the way to describe yourself. When you read the way to describe yourself, you read the way to describe this year's winner of the CPS Gridder trophy. By Gail Kick.

Receiver, a member of the 1942-43 CPS Gridder squad, tells how to receive the trophy by saying, "It does not matter to me whether or not the trophy is awarded."

The cup, the only one of its kind in the world, was given to the CPS Gridder squad, and the receipt of it was given to the CPS Gridder squad.

The award was made in the usual manner, and the trophy was made by Mr. Still, who is the sculptor of the trophy.

Using the trophy to designate the men who are the recipients of the trophy, the trophy was given to the CPS Gridder squad.

The trophy was awarded to the CPS Gridder squad by the CPS Gridder squad.

Basketball Story

All in all, basketball, the story was too happy. The university was over the floor, and the players were using the floor to meet and greet the fans. Mrs. Kick, in her capacity as the public address girl, made a small speech for the CPS Gridder squad, and the trophy was given to the CPS Gridder squad.

"I don't think we'll need to go to the other side of the floor to find the CPS Gridder squad," said Mrs. Kick.
