New Spurs Tapped In Chapel Monday

Students quickly realized Monday morning in chapel that Prof. F. M. Crandy from Cupcake, Idaho, was among the throng in the chapel gathering in the back of the auditorium. Once again they believed that another of their classmates was going to tape 15 to 16 freshman girls as next year's Spur leaders.

Candy planned the contest as such active support, accompanied by the tune of a four-line dedicatory ditty read by President Elverson Amundson, walked down the aisle to tap a newly chosen pledge.

The completion of tapping found them 15 girls, selected by active Spur leaders, ready to receive the Spur ribbons and badges which officially make them Spur leaders. They are: Mary Jean Heidinger, Myrtle Robinson, Polly Packard, Maser Beatty, Mary Ruth Ehringen- der, Donna Jeanne, Elizabeth Anderson, Shirley Preston, Marion Janssens, Betty Jane, Casey, Jing Ling, Louise Kopper, Joyce Paul, Ann Alice Cross and Jane Lindeman.

Pledge officers elected at the Spur installation last Sunday are: Polly Packard, president; Betty Jane Cappa, vice president; Louise Kopper, secretary, and Joyce Paul, treasurer.

Selection of those girls was based on the qualities, personality, activity in school life, attitude and cooperativeness.

Tenis Court Team Win of Honors In Successful Campus Day Clean Up

Campus Day, oh Campus Day, for fun, work, food and stiff joints. Under the chairmanship of Jeanne McDougall and Frank Price, the entire student body (but I say that with a wink for the women who are at other places) turned out en masse to beautify the campus. Team number one, under the leadership of Ed Funk and beautiful Joyce Fearsne spent most of the morning carrying doors to the Student Union Building to be safeguarded in position after being stored in the former Firehouse during the night. Judy Bencosme, Jack Frost and Betsy Stull stayed with the doors during the night while Desi McCloud and Betty Jackson were gathered about the Flamer."
Sophomore’s Take Interest in Frosch Foster Spirit in Incoming Greenies

Although the Sophomores have many ideals to uphold, we as a class have a very important responsibility. That of showing the incoming Freshmen that those who preceded us have a spirit of friendliness and cooperation of CPS have always to be seen at football and basketball games, and they were always on hand to help the Freshmen find their way to class to be Spurs in their sophomore year. These girls were “finals” means in their big life.

More Class when we were once Freshmen. We can well understand their feelings and thoughts, and what the very word “finals” means in their big life. CATHERINE LUZZI,

President of Sophomore Class.

Spur Tapping Honors Fifteen of Freshmen Class for Service Group

Once more the blue and yellow pledge ribbons have been presented to fifteen selected girls from the Freshmen Class who represent the spirit of friendliness and cooperation of CPS have been tapped to the Sophomore Women’s Service Honorary, Sophomore Class. The tap was given as the beginning of the semester, at the annual Bag-rush, it was Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

We, as a class, appreciate the privilege of watching the Freshmen in their various stages of development in college life and in fostering them in adjusting to the traditions and ideals that CPS stand for. The Inter-Collegiate Knights and the Spurs, two Sophomore honorary societies, have contributed more than their share to the glory of CPS, and are surely an incentive to be made proud.

But the memory is still fresh in the minds of the Sophomore Class when we were once Freshmen. We can well understand their feelings and thoughts, and what the very word “finals” means in their big life.

"Spiziriunctum" Still High As Sophs Complete 2 nd Year

We were full of “spiziriunctum” when we were the lowly freshmen who sat in the gallery and chapped at our first Wednesday chapel, and we are still full of it as this year’s sophomore class.

Full to the brim, as we show in our participation and enjoyment of our class.

As all freshmen are, we were scared too when we first entered this college where dreams begin to be fulfilled. But once again we have learned that there is a lot to be learned.

We have added our voices to many a chapel program. The Trail was edited this year by Margaret Smith and Mary Ann Plotz and students.

The class of ’46 has another proud moment when we can do no wrong. The majority leader of the Sophomore class is one of these little words that may be taken in this case as an inspiration.

It was Dr. Thompson who said we had “spiziriunctum” and we were not allowed to have more in the next two years, our spirit will stay at CPS for the past two years. Our class is the first to be formed in the college.

The year 1946 rolls around and we are the graduating seniors.

American Government Class Attempts to Pass House Bill

Room 114 has been in the past week a hot bed of lobbyists, flauberists, party whips, riders and caucuses in the American Government class to learn the process of passing a bill through Congress.

With the Honorable Warren Womison from Washington as speaker of the House, dictating the concerted action of both parties, the House Bill II, Federal Regulation and Standardization of Education, was defeated by a 157 to 117 vote.

At the public hearing the House retired to a conference committee in the next two years, our spirit will stay at CPS for the past two years. Our class is the first to be formed in the college.

The year 1946 rolls around and we are the graduating seniors.

Life on third floor was a bit different last week end with the shifting of the noisy element out to silent, by showing plenty of spirit in all school functions activities.

Cathie came to CPS via Frances Lee and Student Council, and her arrival to the campus was hailed as a victory for the Sophomore Class. Her freshman year long remembered because as she is the first Sophomore who was elected vice president of the Sophomore class. She was elated in the late fall when tapped by Sophomore Class and this year with Cathie as a Pioneer has lived up to title by showing plenty of spirit in all school function activities.

"C" is for character and "A" for ability and "T" for thoughtfulness, "F" for humor, "I" is for individuality, and the "E" for earnestness. Since some of these letters spell "F.A.T.I.E," character and thoughtfulness is the way to go.

"T" is the way to go. Sophomore Class has done a superb job.

"Sidewalk Cafe To Be Motif of Kappa Phi Tea"

In a setting of sidewalk cafe individual tables will be decked in gay spring flowers as Kappa Phi presents its annual Mother's Tea on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Kittrell Hall. Each table will be decorated with tiny spring hats filled with tiny flowers and will have as centerpieces large hats of the Kappa Phi colors. The center hats will serve as vessels catching falling over the crown. Donations contributed at this affair will be used to send a delegate to the National Council in June.

General chairman in charge of the tea is LuJean Logan with Mar- jorie Dawson in charge of the program. Trudy Jones and Joan Tregevant will be in charge of the refreshments. Mineral selections on the program will be given by Catherine Conrey and Mary Ann Truitt. Speakers for the evening will be Mrs. Marmaduke Dobbsworth, who will tell the story of the daughters and Ruth Ann Dobbsworth, who will tell the story of the mothers. Aided by pledges and new members the Junior Planners planned the decorations and favors for the event.

Violet Supper in Honor of Thr Seniors

At a tradition started sever- al years ago, the Kappa Sigma para- mount held their annual Violet Supper, last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stanley, 5414 Federal Way. Guests were seated at tables decorated with pri
to flowers and burning candles. Mrs. Marnon Donald, Mrs. Donald Lewis, and Mrs. Lowry Skeen were in charge of the decorations. There was a special welcoming and a tribute to the senior sorority girls who are graduating this year. Among the guests were other sorority girls, who were also guests at the alumni dinner, were: Janet Amundson, Janet Eichorn, Jenny Gilstrap, Jacqueline Moore, and Arlene Wilder. Mrs. William E. Hare and Mrs. Charles Robbins, who are charg- ing the refreshments, and Mrs. Marnon Donald, Mrs. L. H. Inman, Mrs. John Shipp and one Deborah Wehli.

Engagement Announcement

By becoming a complete surprise to the members of Delta Alpha Gamma, the engagement of Mary Louise Rogers (upper left) and Dorothy Backlund (upper right) to Leonard M. Miller, was revealed at the sorority meeting last night. The announcement was made by the passing of the traditional box of chocolates. A lilac is on the table with the name "Mary Lou and Art" printed on it. English.

Mary Louise is a junior and has been active in other activities during the past few years at CPS. She has been society editor for the Truol in peacetime, and has held offices in other sororities. Art, now in the first year of law school, is a former member of the delta, and a member of Delta Alpha Phi. He was sports editor in high school and has had an excellent record in school activities. Both were born in Tacoma, and Art is from Tacoma. No definite date has been set for the wedding.
