Workshop Band Performs To Climax Day's Events

One of the biggest events of May Day will be the Workshop Band Concert to be held Friday, May 5. The concert, the first to be held in what will be an annual affair, will feature original arrangements of popular music by the arranging group.

The arrangements, which have been the project of the seniors for each year they have attended the college, will constitute an important chapter in the history of the band, and students will be电费 charged early in the summer for the purchase of these arrangements.

The concert of modern music will set a precedent at CPS because several of the arrangements included in it are by well-known composers. First ideas of the project were conceived early in the summer of 1954. It has become a reality through the generous contributions of the students and the music department.

The concert will be held in the Albert Sutton Quadrangle, the program will start at 12 o'clock and will remain in the auditorium.

LEROY OSTRANSKY

JOHN J. WESTON, Joan Storck, and Dee Klaiber—will sing.

Testing Dates To Be Changed To May 6, 9

A change in the plans for the summer registration and summer school has been announced by Dean John Register.

The change was made in order to keep the costs from exceeding those of other college programs and to keep participants falling on succeeding days.

Both seniors and sophomores will take the same examinations which will be given on Tuesday and Friday mornings, from 8 to 12 o'clock. In addition to these two examinations, the seniors will take a special test covering their major field from 1:30 to 3 o'clock on Tuesday. The seniors will also be required to take an additional test which will be given on Wednesday.

All sophomores and juniors are required to take the tests and seniors are expected to participate. Prof. Delmar E. Gilles, of the education department, has charge of the program.

No sophomore will be required to remain at school during the summer if he is scheduled to be away from the college during the summer months.

Each student will be required to remain at school during the summer if he is scheduled to be away from the college during the summer months.

This Spring Says Registrar

New Pre-Registration

Students May Pre-Register For Summer Session Monday

Pre-registration for the 1957 summer session will begin May 5 and continue through May 23, according to Dick Smith, registrar. This period of pre-registration is for the benefit of those attending the College of Puget Sound at the present time and who expect to continue.

Because of the large summer school enrollment which is anticipated upon this year, Dr. Raymond Powell, director of the summer session, urges all who plan to attend summer school to take advantage of this early registration.

The normal program load for summer school will be 16 hours and the minimum load for veterans who wish to draw their full subsistence allowance, 7 hours. A total of 12 hours may be taken provided the student has been maintaining a satisfactory average. Permission to register for the full 16 hours may be given by the registrar or the director of the summer session for those under special circumstances. Students who desire to take more than the 12 hours and who have a satisfactory standing are urged to take additional hours at a rate of $21 per hour.

The summer session will begin with an official day of registration on June 16 and will continue for 10 weeks ending August 22, with fall classes beginning August 29. Some changes and additions in the present summer bulletin have been made and will be available to the students as part of the registration instructions next Monday.

The busy season for freshmen and sophomores is anticipated registering for upper divisions (all courses numbered 100 and above) and any deviations from this must have the approval of the director of the summer session.

Keutzer to Conduct Adelphian Try Outs

Try-outs will be held May 1 to 5, according to Prof. Clyde Keutzer, director of the music department.

Each aspirant will be expected to sing a song to display his (or her) range and power.

If the student is not successful, such an appointment is made to a special appointment with Frances Mckinley, the music department.

The try-outs will be held in Prof. Keutzer's studio in the music building with him and four choirmasters at the piano.

By the same token, the students will be excused from all summer school work during the summer session.

Due to graduation there will be a special test covering their major field of study.

No assistant director will be elected until the final plans by mail.

They're Good at Home, Too!

After hearing in our auditorium last week the concert which the Adelphian Choir has presented in 22 out-of-town appearances, we can be highly pleased with the marvelous performances in which all the members represented cities all over Washington and in Idaho.

We are not denying that the choir members undoubtedly enjoyed themselves on their trips. However, they still made sacrifices, both in missing numerous classes and in paying a good share of the expense.

We appreciate both their sacrifices and the well-deserved fame they bring to the College of Puget Sound.

FACULTY IS OKAY ON BASEBALL FIELD.

We were gratified to find that we have so many "regular fans" on our faculty, including "Burnie" Barton, " Slugger" Thompson, and " two-bit" Whipple.

Although the whole Campus Day program was a success, the faculty-student ball games were definitely the highlights of the day. Good planning and sincere effort on the part of the two co-chairmen made the day enjoyable for everyone.

Sounding Off

By SNEYD E. SMITH

Some people say that this grumbling and groaning you hear around school during the last quarter of the year is due to the coming examinations and final grades. This is true, but there are other, even more important reasons.

The stress and tension of Central Field, for example. You know the people and promptly forget about them—except to gripe about the way they handle student affairs and student funds. As long as you elected them, who cares why you don't like them, or what you want? Instead of all the idle talk, if you don't like something, tell your class officers, attend their meetings and represent the Class of Central to the Board.

All students are allowed to attend Central and although they are crowded out of the school, they are not crowded out of any resources which come up to enter into any of the discussion. Talk is a way in which you can be heard—vote your dollars and send your representatives to Central Board.

Another example is the criticism of the Trail. If you don't like this publication or its policies, and think you have better ideas to further the advancement of our college newspaper, offer your services. Drop in the Trail office and you can be sure they are always receptive to new and better ideas.

The usual answer you hear to this is, "It's too late." You are always giving the same reply: but it's too late to hurry ornaments who have found time to do these things for you.

Ancient Romans, Celts Got Spring Fever.

By LEONARD DOCHERTY

A logical thought in thinking of the approaching May Day is, "Where did the idea come from?" It seems that even the old Roman and Celtic peoples got spring fever. There seemed to be such a preponderate feeling of impulse to "grab a flower and dance.''

Every April, Marie Barton, freshman member of Alpha Beta Upsilon was responsible for having one of the first flowers in the square in front of Jones Hall.

In the days of the Roman Empire, one famous Roman, the Emperor Augustus, held a contest to see who could bring back the first flower of spring. Once again, Marie Barton won. The prize was a visit to the Emperor Augustus himself. The Emperor was so pleased with his visit that he offered to name a new flower for Marie Barton. She chose the Mayflower.

Then, in the 19th century, the United States declared May Day a national holiday. But the practices of ancient Romans and Celts were not forgotten. The May Day traditions continued in the United States until the 19th century when the holiday was discontinued.

This year, the tradition continues, but with a modern twist. The winner of the May Day flower contest will be awarded a free trip to Rome and a chance to see the sights of ancient Rome. The contest is open to all students, and the winner will be announced on May 1st.

Knights Elect New Officers

Log Chapter of the Interfraternity Knights elected new officers last Saturday, May 1, 1948.

Elected to the new posts were: Francis McConnell, Delta; Clayton Anderson, Keeper of the Keys; Willoughby, Scrible; and Art Nelson, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Completing their terms of office are James Warruff, Delta; Clarence Nelson, Keeper of the Keys; Robert Hutton, Scrible; and Paul Gingrich, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

A number of new and retiring officers are moved to express appreciation of the annual convention of Interfraternity Knights held from May 1 through May 3, at Moscow, Idaho.

How "Boat" That?

Bumper sticker, Mr. R. B. Connally, was found adrift on Commencement Bay somewhere near the Chain Bridge. It seems that his boat had developed engine trouble while on the water and that his calls for help were unnoticed for about two and one-half hours, after which the Chain Bridge rescuers in a boat happened upon his message. It is suggested that he continue to call for help regularly, tying around it to his boat and the other to the dock.

Puget Parkus P. Parker Triumphs

In Justice of Peace Race

By ARTHUR L. NEAL

Most everyone knows of Ai Capp's "Lil Abner" character, "Marrin' Sam," but few have heard of our own "Marrrin' Sam," and "Puorkus P. Parker," a student at the College of Puget Sound, and will complete his sophomore year at the College next term.

Parker's unrepresentative rise to the post of Justice of Peace has been attributed to his remarkable ability in the Lord's work. Parker's promotion has caused some disquiet in the community, as there were many candidates for the post. However, Parker's ability to "get along" with others, and his reputation for being fair and just, have made him a favorite with the people.

Parker's first case was the trial of a man accused of poaching. Parker's decision was a victory for the community, and his fairness was admired by all.

Heinrich Calls Hoop Aspirants

"Anyone who thinks he can play basketball is welcome to turn out for the Loggers. Basketball is not a criterion," was the declaration made by John Heinrich, Logger cage coach, this week. "I have always coordinated the try-out schedule which catch the eye of all interested athletes. I am expecting good results in the try-outs because of the enthusiasm coach Heinrich has shown in the past.

Giving the call to both old team members and to new candidates, Heinrich wishes to make it evident that the larger the turnout, the better. A try-out schedule will be made available to all interested athletes. Heinrich has shown in the past that the larger the turnout, the better.

Heinrich cautions all prospective candidates to use caution in selection of basketball shoes and clothes. Avoid blisters and callouses.

Zets Renomed Frat House

The CPS track squad will hit "the cinder run" once on Wednesday, May 7, when they hook up in a quadrangular meet with St. Martin's, Plat and the U. S. Army basketball teams.

Four-Way Meet Scheduled

The CPS-PLC track squad will meet the Loggers for the first time in 1957. The meet will be held at the Tacoma Tiger park.

Odds on the final outcome favor the Loggers, who will be the victors, since twice to date they have been victorious over the Loggers. In their first meeting the score favored the hosts, the Woodmen, 20 2/3 to 44 1/2, and in the second to 42.

Figuring on the basis of the past performances of the two, the final outcome of the meet should remain in favor of Puget Sound, the time of 10 to 10.

First five! Fired safe for the CPS track squad! Bremm, Palmar, pole vault; Tomp- son, 440 dash; Lavie, high jump; Mann and Davis, 880; Palmar, 220; Lightner, L. Nelson; high hurdles, Lavie. On the other hand the Loggers are expected to top honors in the hurdles, Lightner, Cook, Miller, Man; broad jump, Nylander, Jeffries, Mc- Kinney.

Therefore, in the first the visitors will have a 9 to 6 or 5 to 35 favorites. Turning to seconds, the line-up at present looks as follows: CPS: mile, Mann; 880, Davis; 440, Sandt; 220, Lightner; 100, Lavie.

On the other hand the Loggers are expected to place honors in the hurdles, Lightner, Cook, Miller, Man; broad jump, Nylander, Jeffries, McKinney. They are expected to win in the hurdles.
