Dr. Thompson Proves Easy To Interview

By Alexander Mortellos

It was on the first day of the semester that I first discovered the man who would become one of my mentors. The room was dimly lit, and the air was thick with the scent of coffee and cigarettes. Dr. Thompson was seated behind his desk, with his glasses perched on his nose and his pen poised over a stack of papers. He looked up at me as soon as I entered the office, and I could see the sharpness in his eyes. He smiled, and I knew I was in the presence of a man who cared deeply about his students.

"Hello," he said, "I've been expecting you. I heard you were a good student. Is that true?"

I nodded, feeling a little nervous. "Yes, sir," I said, trying to sound confident.

He chuckled. "Well, I hope so. I have high hopes for you."

I blushed. "Thank you, sir," I said, my voice growing stronger with each word.

"Now, let's get started," he continued. "I wanted to talk to you about your future. I think you have a lot of potential."

I felt my heart race. "Thank you, sir," I said, "I really appreciate it."

"You're welcome," he said, "but I mean it. I think you can achieve great things."

I felt a surge of motivation. "I will, sir," I said, "I promise."

He smiled again. "Good. Let's get to work."
are looking forward to hearing many songs from them this fall. Last year these titles were given to Joan, vote of the student body. Those who have heard them sing entire group is made up of college students, and will, unless be a builder of a better college spirit.

Let us all begin to look at the bright side of things. The Trail will follow this rule in the hope that it can help to create a stronger student body and a better college. We realize that everything will not go perfectly. Any letters of criticism will be accepted at The Trail office. These letters must be signed. If it is possible to correct the mistakes that have been made, they will be corrected. New letters of criticism will be gladly accepted at The Trail office.

Girls, would you like to acquire those lovely additions to our school that "new look? Here are some simple rules as to how it is done.

First you must have a coat. If you are looking for a simple coat, think of the cocoon ensemble with the addition of shoes with paper-thin soles and extreme height. Next you must have a scarf of new vibrant color that can be done about getting one out soon.

Fallen Angels Organized

A new organization composed of freshmen girls, the Little Dams of Anderson, has been elected its officers. Delores Kennedy named the group "Fallen Angels." At the first meeting Monday night, the following officers were elected: president, Carol Elliot; secretary-treasurer, Betty Gulliam; birthday and holiday parties, Valerie Dyer, Sheila Lauton, and Barbara Wernstein. Marlene Eddy and Jackie Thorpe are in charge of the housekeeping.

Opinions on Registration

Exactly how efficient was our registration procedure? Indications point that students without flat fees should make arrangements so that they will be able to register in line and wait in line in order to meet friends and faculty. The question was asked: "What do you think of the registration procedure?" Sample replies:

John Banham, sophomore: The faculty and administration deserve a pat on the back for developing and operating a very efficient registration schedule.

Cassia Zeidman, freshman: Personally, I had a very interesting time, but I didn't like to stand in line that long. David McGinnis, freshman: I thought everything was so automatic and smooth. In fact, I got through in such a hurry I was surprised when I was finished getting up. Martha Burke, freshman: I think it was awfully hard on the faculty and the furniture.

Lucy Meyers, freshman: Even though I had to stand in line, it gave me time to make friends. Mercedes Cox, freshman: Registration was made bearable by an interesting faculty.

Norman Schul, senior: I thought it was made easy. It made the students happy. I was going to work in the ship's store.

Joan Cooper, freshman: It was not very confusing. Eitel Shubuck, freshman: I liked the idea of the numbers and marked my place in the line and attended the adversary.

Diana Fife, freshman: I think a new system should be devised.

Tamansaw Available

A limited number of copies of last year's Tamansaw are still available. Students enrolled last year may pick up their copies at the business office.

CPS Has Models

With Vogue, Harper's Bazaar featuring the fashion parade of the day, the men and women of the CPS have set themselves up as models. Let's begin at the base of the situation. Of course you know what has been going on. People want to see what's really happening.

Bob Petersen, Verna Foss, Harriet Albro, Margaret Monahan, Jill Powers, Marjorie Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beck. She was promised, by the State Department, a岗位 in the Embassy office abroad. The assignments begin in the summer, and Miss Mekkes crossed the Atlantic to begin her work in the American Embassy in London. Already she is planning to return to the continent, where she intends to perfect her French.

CPS in 1944, has been appointed assistant dean of women to Miss Margaret Peters of Dallas, Texas, majored in Sociology while at the University of Indiana and was promosed, by the State Department, a job in the Embassy office abroad. The assignments begin in the summer, and Miss Mekkes crossed the Atlantic to begin her work in the American Embassy in London. Already she is planning to return to the continent, where she intends to perfect her French.

Miss Mekkes is now studying for her bachelor's degree which she hopes to receive in the spring - but not necessarily next year.

What is being majoring in business, minoring in French and history, for completing a year at the University of Paris during the war was assigned to Paris as an interpreter. On September 1, 1945, he was married and is now in Paris.

The Kiss Kitty Gets $15 Total

For every Miss, her roommate, and all other women students at Anderson, there is a penny in a quart jar. For a steady flow, the students have put in five cents for every dollar. At the end of the year, the students have put in nearly fifty dollars, which they are putting in a savings bank.

Jayvees Play Fort Lewis
CPS now has a junior varsity football team. Playing their first game last Sat-day against the Band Point Naval Air Station, the Jayvees fought stubbornly, but were defeated by some of 7-6.
A small crowd travelled to Fort Lewis to meet a highly touted senior team.
Dahablio Leads Jayvees
Racing only two weeks, the inexperienced junior team, coached by Don Daubiquet and his assistant, Joe Beckman, proved their defensive power in holding the Bluejackets to a score of 7-6.
The Jayvees' chance to tie the score in the fourth quarter faded when they lost the ball on the four yard line. Sand Point's touchdown came on a 16-yard pass play which caught the Layeberssecondary n ap.
Outstanding Performers
Mert Corbin and Harry Hersey gave standout performances with their excellent kicking. They kept the Little Lutes out of a lot of trouble. John Taylor, half driving fullback, showed a lot of promise.
