Logger Lineup Prepared For Basketball Game Against Pacific University Tonight

Pacific University, opponent of CPS tonight, has 11 basketball lettermen on hand, yet paradoxically it is being named as the weakest of the Northwest teams in the Northwest Conference. Bill Gregor, last year's captain, and Arnold Thiel, an all-conference football player, are expected to lead the attack against the CPS point guard.

On the other side of the floor, CPS has 12 lettermen, with Captain Bob Pitchum, Don Haff, Al Danielson, Bill Silvers, and Bob Angeline coming off the starting line-up on this season.

CPS has the advantage in height with the tallest man on the Pacific Corps standing 6 feet 3 inches and the Loggers having two men that stretch up to the 6'9" mark.

CPS Wrestlers May Challenge Other Colleges

Coach Harry Bird announced that coming tournaments have started. Probable candidates to work will be the college and college club district tournaments Friday from 3 to 5. Intervarsity and Pacific Club meets immediately follow. The first match will be on the 26th of January. Several colleges have written, expressing the desire to arrange home meets with CPS. The Loggers have never before turned out a wrestling team against another college. It is felt that the creditable team can be produced this year, due to the number of experienced high school wrestlers now enrolled. In addition to the colleges which have requested matches, several of the Y.M.C.A. teams and athletic clubs have requested matches.

It is the opinion of Bird that in the same years CPS could produce one or two college wrestlers in the country. Not only that, but they win the Pacific Coast intercollegiate championship but any school place very high in the national wrestling meet each year. The reason for this prominence is that Tennessee and its surrounding community yearly provides some of the finest amateur wrestlers in the country. Van Johnson, Dr. Thompson Have Something in Common

Van Johnson and Franklin Thompson have this much in common: They were the only personalities all students in the Journalism 17 class identified in a Nation-in-the-Schools portrait.

The chunky college president and the chunky Bobby-sox idol were recognized by all nineteen students who took the test.

Next in notoriety were Mom C. Walgren, governor of the state; Henry Kaiser, industrialist; Lowell Thomas, radio commentator; and Ray Milland, movie actor, all of whom were known to eighteen students.

Nobody Knows Bro

Brother knew John B. Joe Pew, Joe Gildier. And in case you're baffled too, Brot is Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia, Pew is an oil magnate and financial backer of the Republican Party, and Gildier is a steel manufacturer.

Brot was identified one as a prime factor in distinction shared by Wulcott Gibbs, New Yorker critic, and Gildier was called a hero.

Un-American Chief Unknown

A Pulitzer Thomas director of the Un-American Affairs Committee, was also unknown in seventeen out of nineteen. He was wrongly identified as an author, a relative of Lowell Thomas, and as head of the Communist party. (Their names were known to eighteen students."
