Evergreen Conference Becomes Reality at Yakima Meeting

By Jack McEwan

Football season this fall will be a different one for Yakima students. At a conference of representatives held in Yakima last Thursday there was an announcement that the new Evergreen Intercollegiate Conference, which will take the place of the old Western Intermediate League, will go into effect this season.

Some of the more avid rooters were aware that the organization was in the making, but for the most part the news came as a surprise.

The reason for the change was not entirely decided what schools were to be included. The membership of the conference as it was announced was:

Washington State University, Moscow.

Eastern Washington College, Cheney.

Central Washington College, Ellensburg.

All schools were represented at the meeting of the Yakima delegates and it was decided that the conference would begin immediately.

The three representatives of each school included:

Washington State University: Counselor John L. Gourley, Sociology Professor, E. S. Wall, Business Professor.

Eastern Washington College: Counselor F. B. Miller, Sociology Professor, E. R. Smith, Business Professor.

Central Washington College: Counselor F. M. Pink, Sociology Professor, E. B. Johnson, Business Professor.

The importance of a conference was explained by the speaker from Washington State University, who said that the conference would give the schools an opportunity to study the problems of their respective states and to work together for the advancement of higher education.

The conference was organized for the purpose of providing a common platform for the discussion of educational matters, and to foster cooperation among the schools.

The conference was opened with a song by the Evergreen Conference Chorus, and was followed by a series of addresses by the representatives of the various schools.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:00 p.m., after which the representatives proceeded to their respective schools.

The Evergreen Conference will hold its next meeting in September, and it is hoped that the conference will continue to meet throughout the year.

Battin Smover Debate Firsts

College of Puget Sound defeated by garlic in the Tye's official tournament held at the college over the weekend. The garde was not well received by the other colleges, and the college administration has decided not to use it in future tournaments.

The college administration has decided to use a new tournament system in future debates, which will be called the "Tye's Official Tournament System." This system will involve a series of debates in which the college teams will be pit against each other in a series of preliminary rounds, and the winners of these rounds will advance to the final round.

The debate on the "Tye's Official Tournament System" will be held on Monday, September 28, at 7:30 p.m., in the college auditorium. The college administration has invited the other colleges to participate in this debate, and it is hoped that the debate will be a success.

Juniors to Plan for Senior Ball

The junior class is planning a senior ball to be held on Saturday, November 7, at 8:00 p.m., in the college gymnasium. The ball will be open to students of all classes, and it is hoped that it will be a success.

The junior class is also planning a senior ball dance to be held on Saturday, November 7, at 9:00 p.m., in the college gymnasium. The dance will be open to students of all classes, and it is hoped that it will be a success.

PRE-MED CLUB TO GET SPEAKERS

To help pre-medical students further their knowledge and to give them an opportunity to learn more about the field of medicine, a new club has been formed on the college campus. The club will meet on a regular basis, and its purpose will be to provide a forum for the discussion of medical topics.

The club will hold its first meeting on Thursday, September 23, at 7:00 p.m., in the college library. The meeting will be open to students of all classes, and it is hoped that it will be a success.

Mays Day Camp Leaders Chosen

The all-college outdoor party committee has decided on Mays Day for the next outdoor party, and has chosen a committee to plan the event. The committee will be responsible for the planning and execution of the event, and will be supervised by the college administration.

The committee will hold its first meeting on Monday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m., in the college library. The meeting will be open to students of all classes, and it is hoped that it will be a success.
Some Changes Needed

There were to attend a meeting of the Central Board he would be strongly encouraged by two county leaders who sit on the Board. The city has a new member and the ASCPS is an organization of near 200 students. I, and I stress the students, are not hand-picked and they do not control our own destinies. They certainly had earned the welcome, and a lot more. We have many students who do well, and did a terrific job in the amount of time they had. We have many students who do not, and the kids but they could at least abuse a bit on them, and we have a relationship, and we at least appreciate the team in the northwest.

Next year will be a difficult one as the public will be more alert and the student body more restless. It's not a reflection on the team, but the world is a lot more complex. And the kids are more critical than they were, and we need to be more sensitive to that. So, the team will do well, and we'll have a lot of fun next year.

And the Risks Came

South west and northwest should be moved further north, where it doesn't rain. (According to the students, you can't even hold an umbrella without getting soaked in the steady sheets of rain. Yes, rain gutters would be a great idea. It's not just a matter of railing, but also of the actual structure of the building.)

And the Risks Came

It's safe to say that the interests of W. A. A. sororities, fraternity and other groups of students, are quite separate. At best, these two levels are just zoos, and the students, who are real people, can be neglected. However, I like Henry Wallace, feel for the common man—the year-end of CPS such—who can't have a free dinner, dance or show. Peter Rex Atkins.

In the Trail Edition

Today, there is a lot of interest in the student magazine. It is not an accident that the student magazine is not only a place where students can express their opinions, but also a place where they can learn about the world. The student magazine is a place for students to share their ideas, to learn from each other, and to develop their own ideas.
