Famous French Musician Joins Faculty

Marguerite Roux, international pianist and organist, will be composer in residence at the College of Puget Sound for the coming season.

The musician was guest artist at many of the New England churches and also the Philadelphia Orchestra.

"We are proud to bring Mar- guerite Roux to College of Puget Sound," said A. W. Everitt, a member of the faculty.

"Her presence as a conductor is world-renowned and his presence on our stage will make a great contribution to the culture of our community."

Mr. Everitt, who is president of the College, said that Roux will be composer in residence for the college's music department.

He added that Roux will work with the students and faculty on the college's musical programs. He said that Roux will also conduct a seminar on French music for the students.

In addition, Roux will give a concert in the college's auditorium on the evening of the 15th of this month. This will be his first public appearance in the United States.

Mr. Everitt said that Roux's work will be a great contribution to the college's musical programs and that it will also help to promote the study of French music.

He added that Roux is a highly acclaimed pianist and organist and that his presence on the college's stage will be a great inspiration to the students and faculty.

Roux will also give a masterclass on French music to the students and faculty.

EDITORIALS

Let's Get It Straight!!

I think there are a few facts that ought to be straightened out right here. IT IS NOT PARTISAN, and in no issue since this editor has edited has it shown any evidence of partisanship.

In the last-box of this issue there is a letter accusing the students with frivolity and apathy—only the rally of the afternoon of March 1st that remained there have been three rallies on this campus this year, at least by my count.

Voll King Lee Erikson asked all the fraternity and sororities to have signs, decorate their cars, and just sign up all over the campus. But only one organization staged a rally. Jo's opinion was complimented and deserved commendation.

Among the many comments heard on why we just congratulated fraternity and not all of them, one person was heard to say that there was only one tree on the campus where he could stand and see anyone else
have a rally when one group was already using it.

"We thought everything, including the rally went over so well that someone suggested it," said Voll Lee Erikson. Voll Duke Bay Frederick commented,
"If we could have gotten together in the way we did the other day
our activities and work together our problem of school spirit would take care of itself."

We think this was rushed through and maybe, with all that political stumpng, we (the students)
may have a whole herd of sheep before our eyes ra ther than a little  wool. Here are a few questions we asked during the discussion:

1. Has money been raised or is some in a fund
now for a field house? How much?

2. Will students have a say in the planning and administration of the field house along with the privileges of donating money?

3. How long will this $5 assessment be backed on the student fund?

4. Shouldn't the students or the administration
build this building without the intermingling?

We are in favor of a field house. There is nothing about the present problems of the university that will do the school more good. We need it now, and we are convinced that the students and administration are convinced that it is the students who will be able to build it.

Picture of Man Who Started
Is Now Hanging in Bursar's Office

Behind the picture of the picture of the "Bashful Butler," which was recently presented to the Bursar's office the story of the history and development of the university.

The story is that of the Great Northern Railroad which was founded in 1922. The railroad was built over the rails, and the university was formed in 1923 with an offer of $20.000 to the college and the railroad, both for the college
and itself, all for the university.

This picture was taken Oct. 1, 1922.

Mr. Hill made similar chal­

1. The railroad is now owned by a large corporation around the railroad
which has been purchased for $20,000 to the college
and itself, all for the university.

FUNKHORST, a half-literary and all-continental news magazine, was first published in 1922. It was sold to Funkhouser, who published it for several years
before it was acquired by the Funkhouser Publishing Company.

Its first issue was published in March 1922, and it continued publishing until 1928. The magazine was well known for its continental focus and its literary content.

The magazine was not published regularly after
the early 1920s, and it ceased publication in the mid-1920s.

Ammerman was the founder of Funkhouser
Publishing Company,
and he is known for
his role in the development of Funkhouser

Now We're Loggin'

Good afternoon, you lovely bunch of students.

Why don't you go do your studying like you're supposed to? You're far behind now you'll have all day to study.

The biggest social event of season, no doubt, was the "Hamburger in the RuFs" event. Friday, March 5, 1948.

Firstly, we'd like to give a shout out to the student body of the Delta Alpha Gamma sorority for their hard work in organizing this event. They are truly a remarkable group of women, always ready to lend a hand in any way possible.

The event was held at the Fountain of the Gods, a local restaurant known for its delicious burgers and friendly service.

The event was open to all students, regardless of gender or affiliation, and it was a great success. The line was long and people were waiting eagerly to get their hands on a delicious burger.

The main attraction of the event was the "Hamburger in the RuFs". These were not your ordinary burgers; they were topped with all sorts of delicious ingredients, such as bacon, avocado, and cheddar cheese.

The event was also a great opportunity for students to come together and socialize. Many people brought their own friends and family members, and everyone seemed to be having a great time.

At the end of the evening, the Delta Alpha Gamma sorority members were presented with a certificate of appreciation, acknowledging their hard work and dedication to the event.

In conclusion, the "Hamburger in the RuFs" event was a huge success. We would like to extend a special thanks to the Delta Alpha Gamma sorority for their hard work and dedication. We can't wait to see what they have in store for us next time!
