Dr. Thompson Quits as Prexy

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson has announced his resignation from the presidency position. This action, according to Thompson, was undertaken "for reasons of health" and is effective immediately.

Thompson, who has served as the head of the school for the past eight years, has been at the forefront of the school's development, overseeing the construction of several new buildings and the expansion of the academic program. His resignation comes as a surprise to many, as Thompson had previously expressed interest in a second term.

"I have been very pleased with the progress of the school over the past eight years," Thompson said. "This is a difficult decision, but it is one that I believe is best for the school and for me personally." Thompson's resignation is effective immediately, and the school will begin the search for a new president immediately.

The school has already begun the search for a new president. The search committee has been instructed to look for a candidate who is passionate about the school and its mission, and who is committed to maintaining the high standards set by Dr. Thompson.

"We are deeply grateful for Dr. Thompson's service to the school," said the school's board of trustees. "He has been a strong leader and a true friend to the school, and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors."

Thompson's departure will leave a void at the top of the school's administration. The search for a new president will be a priority for the school's board of trustees, and they are confident that they will find a candidate who is well-suited to lead the school.

Connie Purge Excites CPS

Commotion is suggested at CPS.

And what was thinking about it, red, unred students who announced the community meeting today at the school, as the idea for the idea all over the school. The idea of the idea was first suggested when the community department added a new edition of the school newspaper.

The new edition of the school newspaper, called the "Red," was first published on the school's website last week. The idea for the newspaper was first suggested by a group of students who were frustrated with the lack of student voices in the school's administration.

The new edition of the school newspaper will feature articles on a variety of topics, including news from the community, student events, and school news. The newspaper will also feature student essays, poetry, and creative works.

The new edition of the school newspaper has already received positive feedback from students and parents. "It's great to have a platform to share our voices," said one student. "We're excited to see where this goes."
EDITORIALS

Women Smokers Expelled!!

By Robert F. Thompson, Jr.

T H U R S D A Y , A P R I L  1, 1948

The story of the ten female students expelled from the University of Washington four days ago has been fully reported in the sports section of The Daily, our own paper. An editorial statement was also printed in the Daily.

Hagan and Knapp

The decision of the Board of Trustees to expel ten girls in the manner described by the above-mentioned offices, is a proper and necessary action. The admission of women into the University of Washington is a very recent innovation.

Those of us responsible for the training of the future leaders of our state, country, and world are deeply concerned with the development of those qualities which make a good man.

Please Students

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.

It is the purpose of this editorial to call the attention of the students to the fact that the University of Washington is a national institution.

Students are not supposed to be dictating the policies of the University of Washington. They are not supposed to be running the University of Washington.
Now We're Lyn...
Athletic Chief Will "Call It A Day"

CPS sport fans were shocked this Wednesday when John Heinrich resigned his post as Athletics Director. Heinrich, who has been in charge of all sports at the College since 1924, announced his resignation effective immediately.

"I have decided to step down," Heinrich said. "It has been a privilege to serve as Athletics Director, but I feel that it is time for someone else to take over.

"I have enjoyed working with the athletes and coaches, and I hope to continue to support them in their endeavors."

"I wish my successor well and I hope that the sports programs will continue to thrive."