GRADING AND STUDYING BOTH DROP
Warning dips and flank slaps entered the minds of many, far too many, CPS students early Monday morning of this week.

Some of the classes may not be to everyone’s liking, but still there is no excuse for this rudeness. Some of the CI, 4th year students are spending time, money, and effort to put the programs on it, and is quite disheartening to hear them walk out in the middle of a speech.

This is one place where CPS can show visiting parents that the college is sincere, so why not try to keep their opinions in favor?
