Now We’re Loggin’

Alumni Club to Present Sixth Semi Formal Banquet
The College Club, a group of the CPS alumni, will have its semi formal spring dance Saturday night in the Cyballs ballroom in the Lincoln Hall.

Three years ago when the club was formed, the dance was conceived as a means of bringing together those members of the college who once knew each other. The first dance was held in May, 1949, and the second in May, 1950.

Betts Greeted By Double Surprise
A number of attractive new posters of the college’s activities will be added to the exhibition of posters in the gallery during the next week. These posters will be printed by the college’s printing plant and will be hung in the gallery.

Senior Ball Now Set For June 4
A date is June 4. This is not the only information that will be released in the posters. The college has also issued another poster, which is available in the gallery.

Chein Society to Hear Tate and Associates
For their regular monthly lecture on Monday evening, the Chein Society will be pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Tate and Associates as their speakers. The lecture will be held in the society’s regular meeting place, the Living Room of the College Club.

Sidelines on Extracurricular Activities of Campus Day
By Alan Malotski
No crew knew exactly what their job was, but at 12:30 a.m. Campus Day work was over, except for the cleanup at the end of the work day. It was a lively show for two and a half hours. There was a side of pleasure to the whole operation.

Den Stylers, Delta kappa member, seemed to be doing a lot of the work. It was impossible to determine what he was doing. He was walking from project to project, catching up on the work of others, helping out on some projects, and checking on others. There was a lot of noise, and there was a lot of laughter and horseplay.

Number five team which was scheduled to dump trash was not able to get anything done. They appeared to be jumping from project to project, making sure that there was no trash left in the area. They were the only team that was able to get anything done.

The air was warm, up above the water was cold. The wind was blowing, and the work was going on.

Barefoot Sensation

Sam Jones' Tom Listen is proving to be the sensation of Southern California track circles. Tom is a record breaker, but the sensational part of this story is his bare feet.

Improvement

In the preliminary running of the high hurdles, Dick Lewis' 19.3 was good enough to beat the same man by two full hurdles. In the finals, which Lewis won in a new record time of 18.5, the same man was only a shade behind him in his bare feet.

Logger Slugger

Earl Burnell, woodchopper shortstop, has been the sensation on the diamond squad this week. Earl has a series in every game but one. Against St. Martin's, he slammed out three hits in four times at bat.

Loggers Nosed Out In Relay Races at Olympic Meet

New Olympic records were set last night at the University of Washington track by Don Hesse in the 300 hurdles race. Don timed 39.7 in winning the race. Don was also the member of the winning 440 relay team. Hesse's time of 44.3 was a new Olympic record.

Seniors Excused

Sixteen seniors have been excused from the track meet by Coach H. A. Anderson. These seniors have been excused in order to be more effective in the remaining meets. This move will enable the seniors to give more attention to the remaining meets.

Scholarship Awards To Be Made In Full

Scholarship awards to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will be awarded by the track club. These awards will be based on the senior status of the student and the academic standing of the student. The awards will be made in five categories: freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduate students.
