I Wonder...

Why some student organization isn't given the concessions at the football and basketball games. It is done in many of the progressive high schools and colleges around the country. It would be good business experience, the buying and selling of merchandise, and would also open the financial gates for some group.

What is going to happen to the "dust bowl" out beside the SUB. Its smoother now, but...

Why the girls' soccer field is not made available to the men's intramural department for their football games. Despite all the different organizations and department chiefs on campus, we all attend the same school. Because it is a smaller school, it seems to me that we should be closer knit than we are.

Why the Emergency War Fund of last year has been included in this year's tuition, and if there is a special sock where those twenty-some hundred 25 dollar gold pieces are stashed away—waiting for a war emergency.

Why people who don't have a taste for what is printed in this paper don't see or write the editor. He is the one who reads and okays all that goes into print. It is on his shoulders the responsibilities rest and also upon his neck the axe should fall, if the occasion warrants it, not on the reporter's or columnist's.

There are answers to all of these wonderings. It would be a great help if those "in the know" would volunteer the information.

There's lots of excitement around the dance floor—greeting old friends, making new ones.

Part of the fun of campus parties is the pause to enjoy a Coke.

It's delicious... refreshing, too.

Homecoming Parade...

This year's Homecoming parade, which will be carried out along the general Homecoming theme of "Political Stew in '52," promises to provide stunts, music, clowns, and floats of all kinds. At least this is the prediction of Larry Lamb and Don Dixon, Homecoming parade co-chairman. The parade is set for Saturday, October 24, at 10 a.m. All parade entries are to be assembled at 17th and Broadway by 9:45 a.m. Starting at 17th and Broadway, traveling west along Broadway to 9th, then to Pacific. They will go out Pacific to Jefferson. The parade will disband there.

The drill teams that are scheduled to march are Bellarmine ROTC color guard, Lincoln High School Martetketta Chi girls' drill team, 560 Air Force band from McChord, and the CPS band.

To be eligible for judging all floats must proceed via the Lincoln district to Cheney field where they will be parked in a parking lot there. All organizations wishing to participate in the parade should have their entries in the Delta Kappa Phi mail box in lower Jones by Tuesday noon, the co-chairman stated. Fifty dollars has been set as the limit of money which an organization may spend on their floats. All bills on floats are to be turned in to the co-chairman before the parade to be eligible for judging.
Indee Partee . . .

The Indees are having a fireside (complete with a fire, yet) tonight at Epworth Heights. They're planning on eating (treasurers frown on this habit, so bring your own refreshments), drinking (the Indees will furnish the hot chocolate), and making merry till midnight. Cars will leave the SUB at 7:30 and any Indee is welcome (for a small fee).

Mr. and Mrs. John Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goman will chaperone.

Chinook . . .

Appointment of committee chairman, a discussion of coming activities, and the showing of slides of mountaineering scenes constituted the meeting of Chinook held last Wednesday; thus stated Duane Wegner, newly-elected Chinook president.

Committees and their chairmen were appointed as follows: activities, Jim Gourley, membership, Ruth Nicholson (sororities and Indies), Sail Hendricks (fraternities); publicity, Ann Du Bois and Terry Schick; entertainment, Monte Haun and John Ramsey.

November 2 has been set as a tentative date for open house at Deep Creek, CPS Associated Students' ski lodge. Slated for sometime in the middle of November is a ski sale, which will offer good ski equipment at reasonable prices.

Now in the planning stage is a skating party for all CPS students. It will be for the purpose of raising funds for a new hydro-electric plant at the lodge.

Dr. Sprenger, faculty adviser for the group, said that final details are being worked out to purchase a portable ski tow for Deep Creek.

Color slides were shown by Monte Haun of his mountain climbing experiences in the Grand Tetons. Picture of a Mount Rainier climb were also shown.

Work groups are still needed to put in the winter's wood supply at Deep Creek. All those going Saturday or Sunday are urged to contact Dr. Sprenger, Jim Gourley, or Duane Wegner.

The next meeting of Chinook is scheduled for Wednesday, October 29.

Delta Delta Delta . . .

Pledges are making final plans for the dance at the Firs, this Friday night.

Tri Deltas held their house party at Chinook last weekend. The girls formed a work party and helped pile wood.

Plans are now being formulated for the Delta Delta Delta-Sigma Nu Christmas dance. Vicky Kerr has been chosen chairman from the chapter.

The Mother's club will hold their Tea Sunday, October 19, in the SUB lounge. It will honor the new pledges and their mothers.

Delta Kappa Phi . . .

The members and pledges of the fraternity had a very enjoyable evening last Friday night when we were hosts to the student nurses from Tacoma General Hospital. The most favorable comment came from a here-to-fore rather unsocial sophomore member, who claimed, after the smoke had cleared, that he had had a very interesting and educational evening. He has no further comment, except to endorse a more active social program in the future.

The Mother's Club held a tea at the house Sunday afternoon, at which time the parents of the new pledge class were able to meet the parents of the members of the active chapter.

Dick Sharman was unanimously elected as the fall sergeant-at-arms for the active chapter.

George Pearson, social chairman, has been making the preliminary plans for our Inaugural Ball, which will be held December 6; immediately following our installation in Phi Delta Theta.

The fraternity will hold an informal fireside after the PLC football game.

Pi Beta Phi . . .

At the Monday night meeting the social calendar for the year was announced. November 8th is the date for the Pi Phi-Kappa Sig pledge dance.

Next Sunday at 11:15 the Pi Phis will enjoy the annual Kappa Sig Waffle Breakfast.

The new rush captain is Donna Rockway. Her assistant is Anne DuBois.

Joanne Wood is our candidate for Homecoming Queen.

Mrs. Schroeder, our new faculty adviser, attended the meeting.

Mr. Jamieson gave a very interesting talk on study habits.

To highlight the evening Donna Dettrich announced her pinning to Don Boesel.

The Pi Phi pledge class officers are as follows: president, Liz Regester; social chairman, Pat Lewis; secretary, Janice Moors; censor, Barbara Gonia; treasurer, Betty Shaffer; historian, Sally Nelson; scholarship chairman, Mary Lea Gray.

Lambda Sigma Chi . . .

The Sigma Chis entertained the Lambdas Friday night at a fireside. The purpose was to welcome the new pledges.

Sharon O'Brien and Bonnie Nold are helping with homecoming decorations.

The Lambdas are happy to welcome nine pledges into their midst.

Joyce Butherus, Norma Hannafoard, Shirley Demko, Marlene Peterson, Mary Lu Mackay, Ila Eide, Donna Lillis, Helen Raedich, and Gloria Leonard.

Theta Chi . . .

Two new pledges were welcomed into Theta Chi last Monday, they are Tom Names and Duane Swanson.

Ray Gosney passed out cigars to announce his pinning of Mary Cross and then he sponsored entertainment for the membership at the Yacht club. The fraternity serenaded Mary at the girl's Cottage.

Paul Margeson, the traveling secretary of Theta Chi, is visiting us this week. Paul travels throughout the United States visiting chapters of Theta Chi.

Scott McArther and Bob Linrothe were named as co-chairmen of homecoming for the house. Scott has house decorations and Bob is in charge of the float.
Sigma Nu . . .
During the last pledge class meeting officers were elected for the coming semester. They are: president, Bill Wooley; vice president, Tom Ohrbeck; secretary-treasurer, Dick Gowechke; sergeant-at-arms, Lee McGee, and social committee, Dave Bullet, Wayne Willis, and Chuck Heatly.

Saturday some of the boys, namely, Bill Jowett and Bob Clapper, took their cars and passengers to the game at Cheney. They say that they helped the team to its tremendous victory over the Easterners. From all reports everybody had a good time.

Sunday a work party went over to Dr. Schultz's island. Dr. Schultz has been good enough to let the fraternity use his facilities on the island on a couple of occasions. In appreciation, we spent the day doing general cleanup work around the island.

“I go Pogo”—is the theme going around the house since we acquired another mascot. Salty does not like the idea too well but the members say that he can stay if he makes his grades and does his house work.

Brother Walt Hansen, a 1951 graduate, is now serving with the army in Korea. Brother Jerry Murdock is back with us again. He has recently returned from the marines, Bill Stavig, a 1952 graduate, expects to go into the army October 22nd.

The love bird has again taken its toll. Ted Vaughn has recently announced his engagement to Kae Siler and Jim Davis announced his to Florence Fleck. Also, Don Nelson is pinned again.

Sigma Chi . . .
President Stan Selden paid the price for losing his pin by wearing the ball and chain Monday. The traditional ceremony was concluded when the membership serenaded Stan's girl, Jackie Parkenson, Monday evening.

Pledge class officers are: president, Don Rhelfeld; secretary-treasurer, Warren Wotton; sergeant-at-arms, Ray Tabor.

Plans for the Pledge Dance were completed. It will be held Friday evening at Dash Point. New additional pledges are Dennis Burkland and John Vipon.

Delta Alpha Gamma . . .
After the regular Monday meeting, the active members were invited to meet with the alums.

Pledge class officers are Audrey Stenholm, prexy; Bev Jones, veep; and Bonnie Jordahl, secretary-treasurer.

Friday, November 21, has been set for the pledge dance. Audrey Stenholm and Lynn Green are co-chairmen.

The Gamma's general chairman for homecoming is Delores Jordahl. Committees are Evelyn Emert, publicity chairman for queen candidate; Bonnie Case and Bernadine Budil, room decorations; and Lynn Green and Ruth Wallen have parade and stunt.

Kappa Sigma . . .
The Kappa Sigs brought another pledge into the fold. The latest is Ernie De Rosa.

Kappa Sigma held their alumni banquet Tuesday night. Plans for more house expansion were discussed.

The annual Kappa Sigma Waffle Breakfast will be held Sunday morning, beginning at 10:00.

The pledges have announced that the pledge dance with the Pi Phis will be held November 8.

The pledge class was thinking of sneaking last Monday (so it came out later), but decided to hold an all-fraternity party instead. Everyone was satisfied.

How to Spend Student Body Money . . .
1. Get “Request of Purchase” form from Mrs. Angst—Bursar’s office. This must be filled out and signed.
2. Take “Request of Purchase” to Mrs. Angst and she will issue an official numbered requisition.
3. Requisitions come in triplicate: White copy goes to company (your authority to purchase)
Pink copy held at bursar’s office
Blue copy for department files.
4. Take the numbered requisition to the place of the purchase. They will send the bill to the college, or they will give you the bill. Your initials will be necessary before the bill is paid. The college will send out the check.
If you are a department manager you have your own budget and mark your books accordingly for your monthly report. Do not exceed your budget.

Geology Club . . .
At Wednesday noon’s meeting, the Geology Club members relaxed while absorbing explanations of drilling for oil, as was so well filmed in technicolor by the Shell Oil Company.

The suspense was as hard on the audience as it was on the drillers. They were equally anxious to find out whether or not there was black gold under the ground.

As one club member explained it, oil may mean money to some, hard work to others, but to still others it can be adventure and a philosophy of searching for the truth.

It was moved and seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Respectfully submitted, Sara Jaeger, ASCPS Secretary

“I shall now illustrate what I have in mind,” said the prof as he erased the blackboard.

Notes From Central Board...

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen, this is your genial host Richard, bringing you the program “Life Can Be Horrible on Central Board. As we left you last week the problems were: Will George Fossen fall to the corrupt politicos of the campus? Will Mrs. Gee find her slip of paper? Can Ralph Mackey vote on Central Board? Will Jack Gallagher write another letter? And last but not least, will you be covered by insurance if you get your neck broke while playing in the intramural chess tournament. Due to a change in the meeting time we will cover two Central Board meetings. At the meeting Oct. 9, Ralph Mackey became a central figure. He was voting on Central Board in place of the Trail Editor. This is in violation of the constitution as it now stands so Ralph, who is the Trail business manager, will not be able to vote. The Jack Gallagher issue is apparently settled. He had his say and possibly did a lot of good by making the powers that be think twice before making any decisions which concern student activities.

The next meeting was held Tuesday in Chapel. The only excitement was held back stage where the Juniors tried to take the hatchet away from the Seniors. As I pointed out in the first article people were unusually quiet. In fact if it had not been for students from the audience the entire Central Board meeting would have consisted of the members talking to each other in whispers and looking into space. Mr. Bank’s explanation of the proposed insurance plan where possibly all students would have to purchase four dollars worth of insurance which would give in return only $300 worth of coverage brought considerable reaction pro and con and is to be voted on later by all the students.

Despite early deadlines, campus criticism, and threatening anonymous notes, this article is still in publication. Here is one suggestion to those students who object to the style of this column. Don’t read it.

Seeing that you are not a quitter, let’s browse in and out among the Cloisters. The Cloisters have sentimental value here at Puget Sound, strong sentinels guarding tradition. Here, when classes change, can be found numbing-thousands of students, each one adding to the wear of the famous brick walk. Occasionally this scene is marred by a cigarette butt as it is flicked aside. The butt leisurely rolls to a crack in the brick, where the constant pounding of feet grind it in our beautiful tradition. Why not all of us take it upon ourselves to be careful about throwing our butts around? Keep our campus clean. As an added incentive, Col. Ackerman is paying a two-cent bonus for each brown bottle removed from the campus.

Leaving the Cloister moral problem, we proceed into Jones Hall. Carefully slipping past the president’s office and being careful not to disturb the daily “tea party” in the Bursar’s office, we approach a familiar classroom. Here can be found the lonely “Marriage and the Home” students. One of Dr. Phillips’ brighter students remarked on how to give a girl a surprise. “Place arms around waist. Draw her strongly toward you and hold her tight. When she says ‘Stop!’ release her. Note amazement on face.”

Commerce Club

What is your future in the field of Accounting? Bob Beck, president of the Commerce Club, said in an interview that this question was answered very well by Mr. Franklin Johnson, C.P.A. and member of the Board of Trustees at CPS. Mr. Johnson spoke at the first meeting of the Commerce Club which was held at Doctor Battin’s house Oct. 7. There were over thirty people at the first meeting and the general feeling was that the club had the enthusiasm to carry on the good work which they have done in the past.

Bob wished to emphasize again that the idea of the club is to help students make contacts and gain practical knowledge in the business world. In keeping with this at the next meeting November 12, they hope to have some one speak on opportunities in foreign service.

For those who missed the last meeting the club is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are majoring in Business Administration or Economics. Others who may be interested may join as associate members.

SAI Tea . . .

Last Sunday, the members of Sigma Alpha Iota gave a tea in honor of the women of the music department at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mary Louise Moore, vocalist, and Barbara Combs, pianist, provided the entertainment.

Wednesday night the girls held a short meeting at the SUB and they passed out bids to the new pledges.
First Methodist Fireside...

The middle of the "Know Your Religions" series of First Methodist Fireside was reached this week. The series began with a visit to the Temple Beth Israel and Rabbi Rosenburg. Last Sunday's discussion was by Mr. Boyle, substituting for the Roman Catholic Priest who was unable to come. October 18 the speaker will be from the Greek Orthodox Church, and the series is scheduled to close with a visit to the Buddhist Temple. However, the series has met with demands to extend the program into a discussion at the fireside November 2 at Epworth Heights. The group gathers Sunday evenings at the home of Rev. Clark Wood, 1420 Division Ave.

Student Recitals...

During a meeting of the music majors, Mr. Rodgers announced that this year there are three types of student recitals. There is the student recital, held on Thursday noons, in which undergraduates participate, the special student recitals on Friday at 4 p.m., in which students enrolled in less than eight hours per term in public seated around a large table in much the same way of the Adelphian Choir. The Madrigal Singers will perform secular music developed in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in England, Italy and France. Madrigal Singing is often called vocal chamber music and is sung unaccompanied.

The Madrigal Singers will perform in public seated around a large table in much the same way of the Madrigal Singers of the sixteenth century.

Mr. Rodgers, director of the newly formed group, is particularly interested in madrigal music for he has done much research on it for his doctor's degree.

Coveted places in the new group were won by: Vinnie Lee Cooper, Sally Finch, Katherine Standifer, Juanita Fagerstrom, J'Anna Sharrard, Al Boyer, Frank Davidson, Karl Kuhlers, Carolyn Newhouse, Kathy Maguire, David Earnst, Don Snider, Fred Holmes, and William Larkin.

Slurp, Slurp...

A familiar sight around the campus this week is the Spurs selling "Lick PLC" suckers. This is an annual affair before the last football game with PLC each fall.

New Vocal Group...

A new musical group has been formed at the College of Puget Sound, according to Bruce Rodgers, music department head. The group will be called the College of Puget Sound Madrigal Singers and consists of 15 select voices from the Adelphian Choir. The Madrigal Singers will perform secular music developed in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in England, Italy and France. Madrigal Singing is often called vocal chamber music and is sung unaccompanied.

Frosh Convocation...

Freshman convocation held on Thursday of last week featured a program on studying and study habits. In charge of this part of the meeting was Dee Snyder. Portraying the parts of the good and bad student at study were Willard Gee and David Jamieson, respectively.

At convocation last Tuesday, CPS students viewed Central Board, governing body of the Associated Students, hold its regular weekly meeting.

Highlight of the assembly was the showing of the hatchet by the seniors. General turmoil resulted, but in the end the Class of '53 still possessed the hatchet.

O.T. Is OK...

Right now, the need is greater than ever for occupational therapists, and the Occupational Therapy club at the College of Puget Sound is just one instrument in filling that need.

Last Tuesday night, at 7:30, the O.T. club held its first meeting at which two former students of CPS, who had majored in O.T., were guests. They spoke on their positions at Madigan General Hospital and O.T.

Nancy Beeman, president of O.T. club, said that plans were being made for the club and for the meetings which would be held once a month in the SUB at 7:30 with refreshments being served. These plans for the meetings would probably include film, slides, speakers, and discussion periods.

SPORTS

Eastern Smothered...

An improving Logger eleven shifted into high gear last Saturday to roll over the Eastern Washington Savages 34-0 at Cheney.

Both the offensive and defensive units received favorable comment from Coach John Heinrick. The line play of tackles Ned Conley and Dick Hartnett and the stellar pass defense of Joe Stortini received special praise.

After rolling up an early advantage, Coach Heinrick was able to use his reserves freely in order to give them valuable playing experience. Heinrick has been lamenting the fact that until this week the contests have been so close that he has been unwilling to risk substituting green players. However, during the entire second half of the Cheney game the Logger coach was able to substitute at will.

The CPS forces came out of the Eastern game unscathed and the team is expected to be in good physical condition for the contest next Saturday with PLC.

Intramurals...

Have you ever observed the powerful lardy line of the Theta Chis, composed of Slim Mosier and Tubby Tonstad? Or have you been awed by the confusion of Sigma Nus two platoon system? If you haven't seen either of these you are missing out on the eighth wonder of the world, CPS intramural football. Really, though, some fine football is played up at Jefferson Park every Monday and Wednesday, and it is there for students to enjoy. Free yet!

Play is scheduled to start at three and usually lasts till five-thirty. If you want some real entertainment, drop up one of these days and join the fun. It has been hard to get referees this year because the crowds haven't been big enough to furnish ample booing.

Monday Kappa Sig and Sigma Chi engaged in a couple of hard fought contests at Jefferson Field. After an afternoon of sweat and penalties the teams came out with a split. Kappa Sigma took the first game 12-6. Sigma Chi came back in the second game to eke out a 7-6 victory.

In the three o'clock game the Sigma Chis drew first blood when a long run by Storman ended in pay dirt. The conversion attempt was foiled.

Kappa Sig came steaming right back with the pin point passing of Schweinler. Tosses to Roe and Rasmussen set up the tally. Roe pulled down another Schweinler aerial for the score.

Kappa Sig threatened early in the second half but a long run by Fawcett was nullified by a penalty. This stalled the drive.

Sigma Chi came right back with a long drive, but were held in the shadow of the goal posts.

With only two minutes left, Kappa Sig's Rasmussen came up with a diving interception. That was all that was needed. Two plays later Schweinler found his favorite target, Roe, standing in pay dirt. A quick toss and the margin of victory.

The second game was a hard fought contest all the way. Both teams were hampered greatly by referees' whistles. A pass from Brown to Rehfeldt put the Sigma Chis out in front at half time. The conversion attempt was good. Kappa Sigma came up with a score in the second half but failed to convert.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Delta Kaps ran up the highest score for the young season as they waltzed by Todd Hall 29-0.
