By Dale Wring

"I try to confine my lectures in six days, so that the whole length of the class period, and it find people don't like to sit much longer than that," Murial Merle Curti told the Tacoma community Monday. Curti is an Associate Professor of American History at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

"The first time Dr. Curti has been in Tacoma. The only other time he has been in the Northwest was one summer when he was a visiting lecturer at the University of Washington."

Admires Campus

Dr. Curti is described as very well-prepared and knowledgeable. He mentioned that the President of the University of Wisconsin, Dr. Curti has been a frequent lecturer at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and at many other institutions in the country and abroad.

Meet Dr. Curti

Dr. Curti is an Associate Professor of American History at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. He has taught American History and related courses at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and at many other institutions in the country and abroad.

Dr. Curti is a well-known author and has written extensively on American history. His works have been published in leading academic journals and he has given many lectures on American history at universities and other institutions.

Dr. Curti's lecture, "Crisis in Education," will be held at the Tacoma College Building on Tuesday, April 19, 1955, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets will cost $1.25 per person. Don Ramage's band will provide the music.

Muriel Curti

In her introductory remarks, Dr. Curti pointed out that the concept of "knowledge is power" has been used for social good. Instead, intellectuals should devote themselves to the creation of knowledge for the benefit of society. The idea that knowledge is power is a social creation, and should be used for social good, rather than to promote individual wealth and status.

Dr. Curti concluded her lecture, "Crisis in Education," by emphasizing the importance of critical thinking and the need for educators to promote intellectual development and social responsibility. She concluded her lecture by encouraging the audience to think critically and to promote the idea of knowledge as a means to empower and uplift society.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who expressed their appreciation for Dr. Curti's insightful and thought-provoking insights into the role of education and the concept of knowledge in society.
A Significant Series

The significance of the Brown & Haley lectures now being delivered at the College of Puget Sound can be measured by reviewing the previous series.

Robert Greenfield, chief historian of the United States army, spoke on "The Historian and the Army" in the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma 16, Wash. The full text of the lecture can be measured by reviewing the previous series.

The second lecturer was Dr. J.K. Galbraith, professor of economics at Harvard University. Entitled "Economics and the Art of Controversy," the lecture was reviewed in the Student Body Section of the New York Times.

President of the United States Dwight D. Eisenhower delivered his address to the General Assembly of the United Nations on "The Historian and the Army." The lecture was reviewed in the book review section of the New York Times.

Not Easy to Determine

How well a college carries out these responsibilities is not easy to determine. I feel, however, that some sort of indication may be found in the level of intellectual life in the student body.

If the college's classes open discussions to new areas of understanding and thought, the student body will foster the student's knowledge and culture beyond the classroom. They also carry the ideas on the IP during the week at the school, which is in the level of intellectual life.

The conversation of the student body is rich and vigorous intellectual stimulation. When intellectual student life at the College of Puget Sound is compared with this idea, the results are somewhat disturbing. Many things which seem to be essential to student intellectual life are not found in the college.

Are No Libraries

As an example of what I mean, there are no present student organization at the college, such as a literary society, which is dedicated to the consideration of the wide range of intellectual subjects. Also, the departmental clubs, with one or two exceptions, perhaps, lack the vitality which they might be expected to have.

On a slightly different plane, many of the recent intellectual movements which have been denied the students at CPS.

Perhaps the most significant intellectual movement which has been denied the students at CPS is the movement toward the study of the arts and humanities.

The group left April 1, 1965, to study Palaeontology. They have been on the mouth of the Humboldt river, and to Table Rock.

When student intellectual life at the College of Puget Sound is compared with this idea, the results are somewhat disturbing. Many things which seem to be essential to student intellectual life are not found in the college.

Perhaps the most significant intellectual movement which has been denied the students at CPS is the movement toward the study of the arts and humanities.

The group left April 1, 1965, to study Palaeontology. They have been on the mouth of the Humboldt river, and to Table Rock.

The next day, the group went to Longview by car. Pay will be $25 per week. Applicants should have a car. Pay will be $25 per week. Applicants should have a car.

Students at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma 16, Wash., have been denied the opportunity to study a wide range of intellectual subjects. Also, the departmental clubs, with one or two exceptions, perhaps, lack the vitality which they might be expected to have.

On a slightly different plane, many of the recent intellectual movements which have been denied the students at CPS are rich and vigorous intellectual stimulation. When intellectual student life at the College of Puget Sound is compared with this idea, the results are somewhat disturbing. Many things which seem to be essential to student intellectual life are not found in the college.

Perhaps the most significant intellectual movement which has been denied the students at CPS is the movement toward the study of the arts and humanities.

The group left April 1, 1965, to study Palaeontology. They have been on the mouth of the Humboldt river, and to Table Rock.

The next day, the group went to Longview by car. Pay will be $25 per week. Applicants should have a car. Pay will be $25 per week. Applicants should have a car.

Students at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma 16, Wash., have been denied the opportunity to study a wide range of intellectual subjects. Also, the departmental clubs, with one or two exceptions, perhaps, lack the vitality which they might be expected to have.

On a slightly different plane, many of the recent intellectual movements which have been denied the students at CPS are rich and vigorous intellectual stimulation. When intellectual student life at the College of Puget Sound is compared with this idea, the results are somewhat disturbing. Many things which seem to be essential to student intellectual life are not found in the college.

Perhaps the most significant intellectual movement which has been denied the students at CPS is the movement toward the study of the arts and humanities.

The group left April 1, 1965, to study Palaeontology. They have been on the mouth of the Humboldt river, and to Table Rock.
TALKIN’ IT OVER’’... with Ron Frank

College of Puget Sound is braced for the first test of its new golf team in its history this month when the College faces the University of Washington. This will be the first time the Loggers have faced the Huskies in a tournament.

Presently the Olympic Miss is concerned about an in-club operation she must face before jump-starting any more hotel bills. She has been trying in vain to move her diamond until surgery corrects it.

Tracksters Lose Opener to PLC

After losing to PLC Saturday, 74-58, at Parkland the Logger tracksters are working hard for their next meet with Western Washington and Bellingham Saturday.

CPS coach Rich Dodds was the high point getter, compiling 184 points of the Loggers' total. He was first in the javelin throw, tied for first in the pole vault, second in the 100-yard dash and third in the shot put.

We Prouty's time of 28.2 was far enough to win him the 220-yard low hurdles and he also picked up a second place in the 440.

Don Savell topped first in the 100-yard dash, missing out Dodds. He placed second in the 220-yard dash and third in the discus throw.

Other point-getters for the Loggers were Bob Maguinez, third in the 220; Bill Weyer, first in the shot; Tom Owen, second in the shot, discus and javelin.

Aest Scores 74

Paced by Bud Wailer's 74, the CPS forces split with the University of Washington. Paul Medin and Scott were tops for the Loggers against Central Washington.

Aest and Shangula were tops for the Loggers in the doubles to defeat Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Loggers Seek Second Win Over UW Huskie Forces

College of Puget Sound's crack golf team, winner of three of its four first matches, takes on the University of Washington Huskies Friday at Seattle. The Loggers return home Monday to meet the 13th Naval District station at Fircrest.

The Loggers stunned the UW forces April 6 at Fircrest by handing the Huskies a 20-15 loss. The Huskies, perennial favorites for the northern division of the coast conference, had a rough afternoon against the Logger divotmen.

Aest Scores 74

Paced by Bud Wailer's 74, the CPS forces split with the University of Washington. Paul Medin and Scott were tops for the Loggers against Central Washington.

Aest and Shangula were tops for the Loggers in the doubles to defeat Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin 100-yard dash, nosing out Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Aest Scores 74

Paced by Bud Wailer's 74, the CPS forces split with the University of Washington. Paul Medin and Scott were tops for the Loggers against Central Washington.

Aest and Shangula were tops for the Loggers in the doubles to defeat Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.

Netmen to Host Central

After receiving a defeat in its first four matches of the season Thursday to the powerful Central ten-match, 5-0, the College of Puget Sound netmen will entertain the Central five at CPS Wednesday to the powerful Central five.

Loggers take two matches, tied two and lost one in their winning performances. Ray Aest and Francis Shangula blasted their opponents to take three points aginst.

Last Friday at Ft. Lewis, the Loggers easily trounced the Me­Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.

Netmen to Host Central

After receiving a defeat in its first four matches of the season Thursday to the powerful Central ten-match, 5-0, the College of Puget Sound netmen will entertain the Central five at CPS Wednesday to the powerful Central five.

Loggers take two matches, tied two and lost one in their winning performances. Ray Aest and Francis Shangula blasted their opponents to take three points aginst.

Last Friday at Ft. Lewis, the Loggers easily trounced the Me­Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.

Netmen to Host Central

After receiving a defeat in its first four matches of the season Thursday to the powerful Central ten-match, 5-0, the College of Puget Sound netmen will entertain the Central five at CPS Wednesday to the powerful Central five.

Loggers take two matches, tied two and lost one in their winning performances. Ray Aest and Francis Shangula blasted their opponents to take three points aginst.

Last Friday at Ft. Lewis, the Loggers easily trounced the Me­Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.

Netmen to Host Central

After receiving a defeat in its first four matches of the season Thursday to the powerful Central ten-match, 5-0, the College of Puget Sound netmen will entertain the Central five at CPS Wednesday to the powerful Central five.

Loggers take two matches, tied two and lost one in their winning performances. Ray Aest and Francis Shangula blasted their opponents to take three points aginst.

Last Friday at Ft. Lewis, the Loggers easily trounced the Me­Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.

Netmen to Host Central

After receiving a defeat in its first four matches of the season Thursday to the powerful Central ten-match, 5-0, the College of Puget Sound netmen will entertain the Central five at CPS Wednesday to the powerful Central five.

Loggers take two matches, tied two and lost one in their winning performances. Ray Aest and Francis Shangula blasted their opponents to take three points aginst.

Last Friday at Ft. Lewis, the Loggers easily trounced the Me­Chord AFB aggregation 15-3. Aest and Shangula were tops for CPS with 18 and 17, respectively. The high winds and wet condition of the course, hurt the medal scores.

Shangula Misses Law for CPS

CPS's other victory was a 13-3 over Western Washington. April 11 at Fircrest. Western Washington had missed the shot, discus and javelin.
ROTC Cadets to Get Awards During Annual Inspection

Major Robert C. Owen, pro­fessor of Air Science and tactics at the College of Puget Sound, Tuesday announced plans for the ROTC annual inspection and presenta­tion of academic awards.

The inspection from Headquarters Air Force ROTC, Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, will be in Tacoma Thursday and Friday to make the formal inspection of the administration and instruc­tional phases of the Air Force installation at the College of Puget Sound.

This team is headed by Col. Lewis H. Kensinger, who is Inspector General of Hq. AFROTC. Col. Kensinger is assisted by two other Air Force officers, Lt. Col. W. F. Fradenburg and Capt. Philip W. Raistakka.

During Annual Inspection, Tuesday announced plans for the ROTC annual inspection and presentation of academic awards.

The inspection from Headquarters Air Force ROTC, Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, will be in Tacoma Thursday and Friday to make the formal inspection of the administration and instructional phases of the Air Force installation at the College of Puget Sound.

This team is headed by Col. Lewis H. Kensinger, who is Inspector General of Hq. AFROTC. Col. Kensinger is assisted by two other Air Force officers, Lt. Col. W. F. Fradenburg and Capt. Philip W. Raistakka.

During Annual Inspection, Tuesday announced plans for the ROTC annual inspection and presentation of academic awards.

The inspection from Headquarters Air Force ROTC, Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, will be in Tacoma Thursday and Friday to make the formal inspection of the administration and instructional phases of the Air Force installation at the College of Puget Sound.

This team is headed by Col. Lewis H. Kensinger, who is Inspector General of Hq. AFROTC. Col. Kensinger is assisted by two other Air Force officers, Lt. Col. W. F. Fradenburg and Capt. Philip W. Raistakka.

During Annual Inspection, Tuesday announced plans for the ROTC annual inspection and presentation of academic awards.

The inspection from Headquarters Air Force ROTC, Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, will be in Tacoma Thursday and Friday to make the formal inspection of the administration and instructional phases of the Air Force installation at the College of Puget Sound.

This team is headed by Col. Lewis H. Kensinger, who is Inspector General of Hq. AFROTC. Col. Kensinger is assisted by two other Air Force officers, Lt. Col. W. F. Fradenburg and Capt. Philip W. Raistakka.