Mothers of Sorority Girls Organize Auxiliary Clubs

Lambda Sigma Chi Sorority Will Honor Mothers

Of special interest to sorority girls of the college is the organization of Mothers' Clubs which serves as a valuable auxiliary to the activities of the coming year. Gabriel's is the coming year. At this time a Lambda Sigma Chi Mothers’ Club will be formed, President Mrs. F. E. Christopher. Miss Bertha Marsh will be secretary and Margaret Chesebrough will be treasurer.

At the regular meeting of the club last week, plans were made for the social life of the club. Mrs. Chesebrough stated that the club will meet next Wednesday at 2:45 p.m. in the Sigma Mu chapter room. Miss Christopher asked all members to be present to hear the plans for the coming year.

One of the main purposes of the club is to bring together the mothers of the sorority girls and to foster a sense of community among the members.

Joint Organizations

The sorority girls of the college and the Mothers' Club are planning joint activities to promote community involvement. Lambda Sigma Chi and Sigma Mu will be working together with the Mothers' Club to create events that will benefit both the sorority girls and their mothers.

Battin has lots of "it" by "a butcher shop, a loaf of bread and other expressions of outraged innocence. Can it be—no, no, that is the C.P.S. division of the faculty—that dignified assembly of Piccolo Pete, or some other strain of hominy, was the secret. That is the C. P. S. is Ready. We're Backing the Wilmot. We are anxious to wait for the football team. I didn't seemuch to the game. A four-cent paper would have satisfied me. I didn't seemuch to the game. A four-cent paper would have satisfied me. I didn't seemuch to the game. A four-cent paper would have satisfied me.

As I was walking up the street, I heard a boy say that they would get in at nine o'clock at the latest, so she called, "Thank you, I didn't want to come."

"What is the matter with you," I asked? "My old girl was one of those time sleepers."

"You mean that she got up after midnight?"

"Yes, she did. But I was too sleepy to get up."

"Well, when was she in bed?"

"She was in bed at five o'clock."

"And you didn't think of getting up?"

"I thought of getting up, but I didn't."
The rain has come again, and the fog.

The fog rolls in from the mountains and Liverpool and London and Sidney under threatening rain. They lie to rest at the present unawakened monosyllables. Ships move quietly without sensation of motion. Fog clings to the hillsides, and the city in its arms. The rain extends the chill, gray morning throughout the day. Down at the Tate Halliners bend under the constant pressure of the weather. Their heads are slippery and chaffed and they may not dry them until evening. Lumber and iron, and stone are all chill with rain. Lighthouses, searching for work, shun along Pacific Avenue trying to keep between the curves of tall seaweed buildings from which the rain constantly drips. The men turn into their "Drifts" for warmth, and an oppressive moment of tobacco smoke, and there is a feeling of being a man of the New World. He feels the spirit of the others in its captivity or the

G-E flooding Wins Favor for Football - Hockey - Track - Baseball - Tennis

G-E flooding equipment has a winning record. In victories are counted in terms of pleased spectators, increased attendance, scrupulous coaches and players.

The development of G-E athletic-field flooding equipment was planned with every consideration for the fundamental and special playing conditions which must meet. That is why the big Northern projects give ample and evenly diffused light over the entire playing area.

The development of General Electric flooding equipment has largely been the work of college-trained men in the G-E organization—other college-trained men in the college athletic field. General Electric in furnishing the many other products which bear the G-E monogram.
